An Ordinance to provide for the collecton, compilation, analysis and publication of statistical information and for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto 12 of 1973

Commencement: 1st February 1974 L.N. 2/74

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Statistics Ordinance. Short title
2. In this Ordinance unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation “authorised officer” means any person appointed as such under section 3;
 “the Government Statistician” means the Government Statistician appointed under section 3 (1).

Appointment of Government Statistician

3. (1) The Minister may by notice appoint a Government Statistician who shall have and may exercise such powers and functions as are conferred on him by this Ordinance.

(2) The Government Statistician may, in writing, appoint any person to be an authorised officer for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(3) Any power conferred by this Ordinance on an authorised officer may be exercised by the Government Statistician.

(4) The Minister may give to the Government Statistician or an authorised officer such directions as he thinks fit with respect to the exercise or performance of his powers, functions or duties under this Ordinance, either generally or in a particular case.

(5) The Government Statistician or an authorised officer shall in the exercise of his powers, functions or duties under this Ordinance, comply with any directions given by the Minister under subsection (4).

Duties and powers of Government
Statistician

4. (1) It shall be the duty of the Government Statistician—

(a) to collect, compile, analyse, abstract and publish statistical information relating to the commercial, industrial, agricultural, social, economic and general activities and condition of the people of Tuvalu;

(b) to co-ordinate with departments of the Government the collection, compilation, analysis and publication of statistical records of administration; and

(c) generally to organise a co-ordinated scheme of social and economic statistics relating to Tuvalu, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Government Statistician to make such arrangements and to do all such things as are necessary for the performance of his duties under this Ordinance.

Collection of statistical information
Schedule 1

5. (1) The Government Statistician shall collect in Tuvalu or any part thereof statistical information relating to all or any of the matters set out in Schedule 1.

(2) The Minister may from time to time, by order, amend Schedule 1.

Compilation
and tabulation of statistical information

6. The Government Statistician shall cause the statistical information collected under this Ordinance to be compiled, tabulated and analysed and, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, may cause such statistical information or abstracts thereof to be published with or without observations thereon, in such manner as he may determine.

7. Except for the purposes of a prosecution under this Ordinance—

Restriction on publication

- (a) no individual return, or part thereof, made for the purposes of this Ordinance;
- (b) no answer given to any question put for the purposes of this Ordinance; and
- (c) no report, abstract or other document, containing particulars comprised in any such return or answer so arranged as to enable identification of such particulars with any person, undertaking or business, shall be published, admitted in evidence, or shown to any person not employed in the execution of a duty under this Ordinance unless the previous consent in writing thereto has been obtained from the person making such return or giving such answer, or, in the case of an undertaking or business, from the person having the control, management or superintendence of the undertaking or business:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent or restrict the publication of any such report, abstract or other document which would make identification of any undertaking possible merely by reason of the fact that the particulars relate to an undertaking which is the only undertaking within its particular sphere of activities, if such report, abstract or other document is so arranged as to disclose, in respect of such undertaking, only the following information—

- (a) either the quantity or the value of any description of goods manufactured, produced or exported or sold, and
- (b) the number of and any description of employees employed, and
- (c) any other information which has been furnished or supplied under this Ordinance, to the publication of which no objection has been made in writing by the person furnishing or supplying such information at the time of furnishing or supplying such information.

8. (1) Where any statistical information is being collected in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, an authorised officer may require any person from whom particulars may lawfully be required under this Ordinance to supply him with such particulars as may be prescribed or which the Government Statistician may consider necessary or desirable in relation to the collection of such statistical information; and on being so required such person shall, to the best of his knowledge and belief, complete such forms, make such returns, answer such questions and give all such information, in such manner and within such reasonable time, as may be required by the authorised officer.

Power to obtain particulars

(2) An authorised officer may require any person to supply him with particulars either by interviewing such person personally or by leaving at the last known address, or posting to the last known address, of such person a form having thereon a notice requiring the form to be completed and returned in the manner and within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Where any particulars are, by any document purporting to be issued by an authorised officer, required to be supplied by any person, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved—

- (a) that the particulars may lawfully be required from that person in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, and
- (b) that the document has been issued by an authorised officer.

Access to public and other records

9. Where in the collection of statistical information relating to any matter set out in Schedule 1 the Government Statistician is of opinion that there can be obtained from any Government records or documents or from any records or documents belonging to any local authority information sought in respect of such matter, any person who has the custody of any such record or document shall grant access thereto to the Government Statistician or any authorised officer.

Disclosure of information not obligatory in certain cases

10. (1) Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect or be deemed to affect any written or other law relating to the disclosure or non-disclosure of any official, secret, or confidential information, evidence or document, and any person required by the Government Statistician, or by any authorised officer, to supply any information, to give any evidence, or to produce any document, shall be entitled in respect of such information, evidence or document to plead the same privilege before the Government Statistician or such authorised officer as before a court of law.

(2) A person shall not be required to supply any information under this Ordinance which involves the disclosure of any technical process or trade secret in or relating to the undertaking of which he is the owner or in the conduct or supervision of which he is engaged.

11. An authorised officer may, at all reasonable times and upon production, if required, of his authorisation, for any purpose connected with the collection of statistical information, enter and inspect any land, building, vehicle or vessel where persons are employed, other than a dwelling-house, and may make such enquiries as may be necessary for the collection of such information.

Power of entry

12. Every person employed in the execution of any duty under this Ordinance shall, before entering on his duties, make and subscribe before a magistrate, or other person authorised by law to administer oaths, an oath or affirmation in the form set out in Schedule 2.

Oath of secrecy

Schedule 2

13. (1) Any person, being employed in the execution of any duty under this Ordinance, who—

Offences

- (a) by virtue of such employment or duty becomes possessed of any information which might influence or affect the market value of any share, interest or other security, product or article, and who, before such information is made public, directly or indirectly uses it for personal gain; or
- (b) without lawful authority publishes or communicates to any person otherwise than in the ordinary course of his employment any information acquired by him in the course of such employment; or
- (c) knowingly compiles for issue any false statistics or information, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for 2 years and to a fine of $800.

(2) Any person, being in possession of any information which to his knowledge has been disclosed in contravention of this Ordinance, who publishes or communicates such information to any person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for 2 years and to a fine of $800.

(3) Any person who—

- (a) hinders or obstructs an authorised officer in the lawful performance of any duties or in the lawful exercise of any powers imposed or conferred upon him under this Ordinance; or
- (b) refuses or neglects—
 - (i) to complete and supply, within such time as may be specified in that behalf, the particulars required in any return, form or other document left with or sent to him; or

- (ii) to answer any question or inquiries put to or made of him, under this Ordinance; or
 - (c) knowingly or recklessly makes in any return, form or other document completed by him under this Ordinance, or in any answer to any question or inquiry put to or made of him under this Ordinance, any statement which is untrue in any material particular; or
 - (d) without lawful authority or excuse, destroys, defaces or mutilates any return, form or other document containing particulars collected under this Ordinance; or
 - (e) refuses without reasonable cause to grant access to records and documents in accordance with the provisions of section 9,
- shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for 1 year and to a fine of $400.

Regulations

14. The Minister may make regulations generally for the better carrying into effect of the provisions of this Ordinance, and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, for—

- (a) prescribing the particulars and information to be furnished in relation to any matter in respect of which statistical information may be collected under the provisions of this Ordinance;
- (b) prescribing the manner and form in which, the times and places at which and the persons by whom such particulars and information shall be furnished.
