

Preface

CAPMAS is keen on providing the statistics and information that cover all the economic, social and environmental fields in the Arab Republic of Egypt so as to be issued in the appropriate time for gaining its desired benefits.

In its concern of making all its data, publication and services available to all users, CAPMAS had issued this for first time at 1998 and this is the sixth edition which is updated according to the recent changes in CAPMAS working plan and services.

This guide contains CAPMAS's main statistical publications and current statistics including periodical bulletins and studies classified according to its statistics covered area (industrial-commercial- services etc.....).

It also contains the services provided by CAPMAS in the fields of training, consultations and ways of accessing the statistical data in different fields.

CAPMAS hopes that this guide could achieve its desired benefits.

Best regards,,

Abou Bakr M. El- Gendy
CAPMAS President
