Simply 2010

Statistics Belgium organizes a Conference on Administrative Simplification in Official Statistics SIMPLY2010. The Conference will be held as part of the Belgian Presidency of the Council of the EU in Ghent, Belgium, on 2 and 3 December 2010.

The Conference follows on from the 94th conference of the Directors General of the National Statistical Institutes (DGINS) in Vilnius, Lithuania, on the reduction of administrative burden caused by official statistics.

SIMPLY2010 will offer participants a general platform for high-level discussions on various types of administrative simplification. It will in particular focus on good practices developed by the National Statistical Institutes of various Member States and promote the exchange of ideas and projects in this field.
