Users can access our data 24/7; the data are free and available in two languages (Slovene and English). In addition, all data are equipped with metadata necessary for their correct understanding and usage.

On the website <http://www.stat.si/eng/koledar.asp> we published the Release Calendar for 2015, which announces all releases of data and publications.

With 537 online releases in the First Release series SURS will disseminate first and most important findings of individual statistical surveys.

121 online electronic releases will offer more data at a more detailed level, the most frequently in the form of tables on the SI-STAT Data Portal on our website (2,900 tables).

In line with its mission, SURS will mark various special days and holidays with 32 special online releases. This type of statistical release will also be used to promote the release of our printed publications.

SURS will issue two publications on the operation of national statistics; one of them will be translated into English.

Stat'o'book is a new publication that replaces our Statistical Yearbook and Slovenia in Figures. It will be available in printed form, and online in pdf and epub formats. Stat'o'book presents – in a concise, clear and interesting manner – some of the data that in our opinion touch the lives of everyone.

Data in interactive tools (Population Pyramid, First Names and Family Names, Birthdays, Dynamic Recalculations of Indicators, STAGE) will be regularly updated.
