

On the capital services, it is currently not in the 1993 SNA and is regarded as an advance step in statistical accounting that would improve the consistency of such a measure.