

2. PRODUCING THE NAMES INDEX - C) HOMONYMS

<previous - next>

Homonyms (#130) are differentiated in the names index by adding generic (Panamá (country) vs Panamá (city)) or locational attributes.

Take Santiago for instance, a geographical name current in many Spanish-speaking countries. It is differentiated by adding either the location or some other attribute:

- Santiago (Chile)
- Santiago de Compostela
- Santiago de Cuba
- Santiago del Estero
- Santiago (Dominican Republic)
- Santiago (Philippines)

Or:

- San Francisco and
- San Francisco, Bay of. (Illustration from Goode's Atlas)
