

Guidance Note on the Valuation of imports and exports of goods in the international standards

Consultation and Testing by Compilers

You are invited to participate in this online survey to test the practical feasibility of using transaction values for the valuation of imports and exports of goods in balance of payments and national accounts compilation.

Use this link to respond to the survey: online questionnaire.