E-HANDBOOK ON SDG INDICATORS

Inter-agency Meeting on Preparation for the 2018 SDG Reports
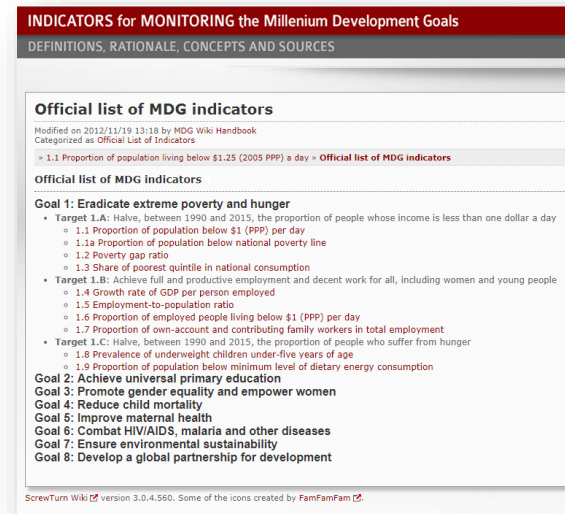

1 March 2018

Background and context

The e-Handbook is targeted towards national statisticians

- Monitoring progress made in implementation of the SDGs based on data produced by national statistical systems.

- Need for information targeted towards national statisticians to collect, calculate and monitor the SDGs.

- Comprehensive yet straightforward reference that addresses such as concepts, definitions, sources, calculations, and provides additional link to, detailed information sources.

- Similar to the handbook on MDG indicators.

- Posted online; live document

- Part of DA-10 project, focused on capacity building

Indicator Name, Target and Goal

Indicator 1.3.1: Proportion of population covered by social protection floors/systems, by sex, distinguishing children, unemployed persons, older persons, persons with disabilities, pregnant women, newborns, work-injury victims and the poor and the vulnerable

Target 1.3: Implement nationally appropriate social protection systems and measures for all, including floors, and by 2030 achieve substantial coverage of the poor and the vulnerable

Goal 1: End poverty in all its forms everywhere

Definition and Rationale

Definition:

The indicator measures the proportion of persons who are effectively covered by a social protection system. It includes the main components of social protection: child and maternity benefits, support for people without a job, benefits for persons with disabilities, victims of work injuries and older persons.

Concepts:

Social protection systems include contributory and non-contributory schemes for children, pregnant women and women with new-borns, unemployed, older persons, victims of work injuries and persons with disabilities.

Effective coverage includes both the number of people who are either actively contributing to a social insurance scheme or receiving benefits (contributory or non-contributory).

Rationale and Interpretation:

Next steps

- Would appreciate your help in reviewing the draft within the prescribed timelines

- Would like to re-emphasize that this is intended for national statistical offices

- Addition of country examples in the future.

- Online-format allows it to be a living document, can be updated as necessary.

- Any questions/comments, feel free to get in touch with us

Thank you!
