Quote	"Glovers Lake," so named after E. Glover on whose land it was situated, was a real pleasure spot from the early years to as late as 1927. The businessmen of the town built a peir, and Ed Carlson, a sailor by profession, had a motorboat. Picnics were held every Sunday during the summerThe lake fell into dususe during the dry years when it all but dried up. However, during the 50's abundant rains again made it a community pleasure spotNow it is 1980 and there also not been enough rainfall or snowfall to fill the lake.
