Report of the UNGEGN, Dutch and German Speaking Division

The UNGEGN Dutch and German Speaking Division held two meetings since the Second UN Conference of Standardization of Geographical Names at London 1972.

The first meeting was held at Frankfurt a.M. 1976. The main item was the unification of the country names in the German language asked for by the translation section of the UN. A list approved by all member countries of the division was compiled and sent to the New York office.

The second meeting, held at Enschede, Netherland 16 May 1977, discussed on the base of the Provisional Agenda of the Third UN Conference on the Standardization of Geographical Names at Athens the working papers to submit at the Conference.
