STATISTICAL SECRECY. The data collected during an official census or survey conducted pursuant to article 5 of the statistics law, in particular those dealing with private life of persons surveyed, are confidential. They may in no case be disclosed or used for political purposes, taxation control, economic repression or judicial pursuit, in accordance with article 7 of law L/95/047/CTRN of 29 August 1995.

Printing of this document was made possible by a grant from USAID
