Extract from Census Act (CAP 25)

8

- (a) A census officer or any person lawfully required under section 5 to give assistance towards the taking of the census, who refuses to perform or neglects to use reasonable diligence in performing any duties imposed upon him by this Act or any person who hinders or obstructs another person in performing such duty or in obeying a written order of the Census Commissioner; or
- (b) any census officer who intentionally puts any offensive or improper question, or knowingly makes any false return or, without previous sanction of the Census Commissioner discloses any information which he has received by means of, or for the purpose of a census return; or
- (c) any person occupying any property, house, enclosure, vessel or other place who refuses to allow a census officer reasonable access as he is required by section 6; or
- (d) any person who intentionally gives a false answer to, or refuses to answer to the best of his knowledge or belief, any questions asked of him by a census officer which he is legally bound by section 7 to answer; or
- (e) any person who removes, obliterates, alters or damages before the completion of one calendar month following the final date of enumeration or survey as published in the official gazette, any letters, marks or numbers which have been painted or affixed for the purposes of the census ; or
- (f) any person who fails without reasonable excuse to perform a duty imposed upon him by this Act; or
- (g) any person obstructing, assaulting or molesting any census officer in the performance of any duty under this Act shall be guilty of offence, and shall, on conviction be liable to pay a fine or to imprisonment or both

In summary, any occupier must allow a census officer access and everybody must answer questions asked by the census officer. It is an offence under Section 8 for any person not to answer any questions truthfully or to obstruct a census officer in any way from completing the questionnaire.

It is also an offence for a census officer to ask an improper question, to knowingly make a false return, or to disclose any information to anyone other than another census officer.
