Indicator	Rationale	Sub-indicators and scoring scheme
1.2 Migration strategy	The presence of a designated migration strategy signals a country's shift from a reactive migration policy framework to a more proactive and comprehensive framework. This indicator assesses whether there is a national migration strategy, and whether this strategy is coherent with the national economic development strategy.	(a) National migration strategy The foundation of the migration framework of a given country Scoring: Is there a national migration strategy defined in a programmatic document or manifesto? [Yes / No / Somewhat (e.g. the document is 5+ years old)] (b) Strategy interconnectedness The connection between the migration strategy and other sectoral strategies Scoring: Is this strategy aligned with national economic development strategies? [Yes / No (e.g. if answer to previous question was "no – national development strategy is not defined", or if national development strategy is not aligned) / Somewhat (e.g. national economic development strategy is only vaguely defined)] (c) Diaspora engagement How governments are facilitating diaspora contributions that bring value to development efforts at home through direct and indirect investments that specifically target diasporas as development actors Scoring: Does the country have a national strategy to engage with its diaspora population? [Yes (e.g. a holistic strategy) / No / Somewhat (e.g. isolated initiatives)]
