

Objectives, programme and introduction

United Nations Statistics Division

Regional workshop on Strengthening the collection and use of international migration data in the context of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, 31 January-3 February 2017, Bangkok

Objectives

Strengthen technical capacity on:

- understand data needs on migration for national policy making and for monitoring of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
- produce, compile and analyse migration data from all relevant sources
- Use data on migration to inform comprehensive national migration policies

Expected outputs

- Enhanced understanding of international migration data standards and methods
- Identified national priority and action points to improve availability and use of migration data
- Outlined strategies to strengthen regional cooperation for data exchange

Work programme: day 1-2

Day 1:

Session 1 Opening

Session 2 Introduction to the workshop & logistics

Session 3 International migration & development:
implication for data

Session 4 Concepts & sources overview

Session 5 Concepts group exercises

Day 2:

Session 6a/b Population censuses as a source

Work programme: day 3-4

Day 3:

Session 7 Administrative sources

Session 8 Sample surveys

Day 4:

Session 9 SDG migration-related indicators

Session 10 Regional cooperation/capacity building/data exchange

Participation

- National experts: NSO & Ministries in charge of migration data collection
- Experts: UNDESA, UNESCAP, ILO, IOM, UNDP, UNHCR

Housekeeping announcement

- Keeping all ticket stubs and original boarding passes
- DSA
- Attendance sheet
- Other