

Tunisian CRVS

Expert Group Meeting on Management and Evaluation of Civil Registration and Vital Statistics Systems

UNH, New York, USA 20-24 february 2017

Rue Ech-cham B.P 265 Cedex Tunis
Tél. : (+216) 71 89 10 02
Fax : (+216) 71 79 25 59
Site Web: www.ins.tn
Email : ins@ins.tn

Plan

1. The legal framework
2. CRVS system
3. Collect of data
4. New methods of collecton of data
5. Best practices

The legal framework

The law on the organization of civil status in August 1957

This law adjust :

The conditions for the declaration of births, deaths and the manner in which marriage contracts are drafted and the manner of its registration, as well as the provisions of the divorce

Tunisian law obliges the registration in the national register of civil status of all births and deaths that occur in the Tunisian territory for any person who is present in the country, regardless of nationality, religion or race

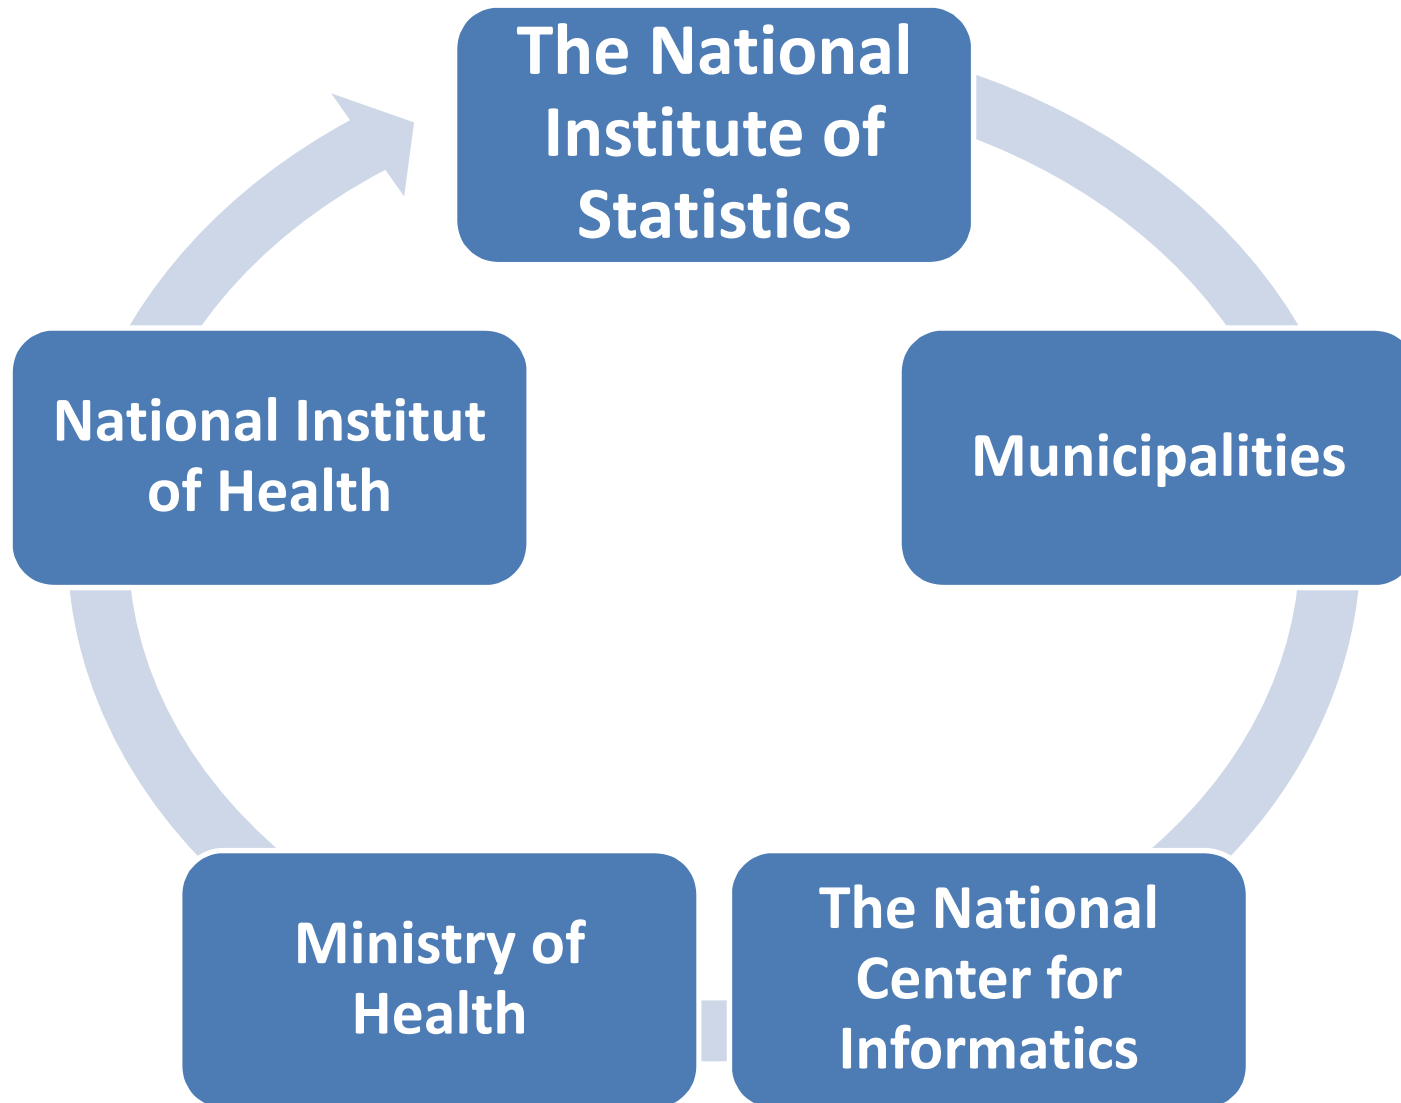

The legal framework

- Time limits for registration of civil events

Certificate	Legal deadlines
births certificate	10 days from the date of birth deaths certificate	3 days from the date of death
marriages certificate	30 days from the date of the conclusion of the marriage contract
Divorces	10 days from the date of the divorce ruling

CRVS system

The main partner

Collect of data

The National Institute of Statistics distributes vital registration forms to the municipalities annually and collects these forms monthly (264 municipality)

New methods of collecton of data

In 2012: an agreement between the National Institute of Statistics and the National Center for Informatics

The National Center for Informatics

The National Center for Informatics CNI

CNI is a public administrative body with legal personality and financial autonomy

CNI has a Data Center dedicated to hosting major applications of the state; provides project development with e-service

CNI has developed MADANIA application for the civil registration

New methods of collecton of data

The National Center for Informatics

All certificates stored from 1800 to 2016

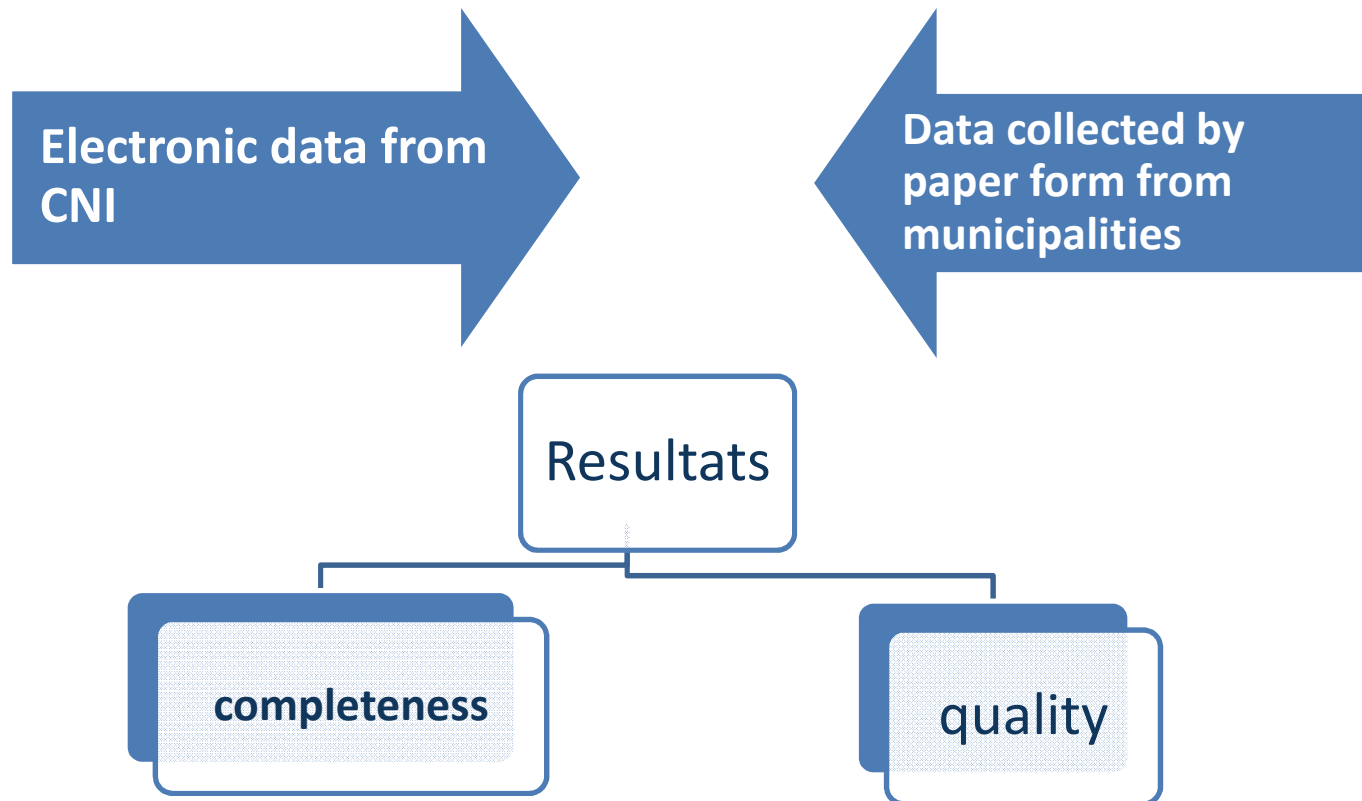

mariages

births

deaths

National statistic institution

Comparison of two sources

When should we use only electronic method

Best practices

- Establishment of an CRVS committee with the objective of improving the quality of statistics on civil status the members of this committee are :

National statistic office, Ministry of Local Affairs and Environment and National Institute of Public health have Make periodic meetings

- In December 2016 this committee made regional workshops with the managers of the recording of the vital events these workshops aim to raise awareness of the agents of the municipalities of the data that they are seizing and see how they work, also this committee aim to see the technical problems of the registrar
- Now we are in the reporting phase of these workshops

Thank you
For your attention