The regional architecture supports the production of gender statistics and their comparability

Statistical Conference of the Americas (CEA-CEPAL)

- 2007 — Creation of the Working Group on Gender Statistics (GTEG) — IV Meeting
- 2015 — Adoption of CAUTAL as a regional standard — VIII Meeting
- 2019 — Incorporation of the gender perspective into the work of all CEA Working Groups — X Meeting
- 2021 — Adoption of the Methodological guide on time-use measurements in LAC; Creation of the Advisory Group on Gender Mainstreaming; Creation of the Working Group Guidelines for Mainstreaming the gender perspective into statistical production — XI Meeting

- 2022 — Creation of the Working Group Tools for mainstreaming the gender perspective in statistical production processes — XII Meeting

- 2023 — XIII Meeting
- 2024
- 2025

Creation of the Gender Equality Observatory for Latin America and the Caribbean

Regional Conference on Women (CRM)

- 2007 — X Session Quito Consensus
- 2016 — XIII Session Montevideo Strategy

- 2020 — XIV Session Santiago Commitment

Strengthening the national production of gender-related statistics to monitor the commitments of the Regional Gender Agenda and the 2030 Agenda

- 2022 — XVI Session Buenos Aires Commitment
- 2023 — Care Society
- 2024
- 2025 — XVII Session Tlatelolco Commitment

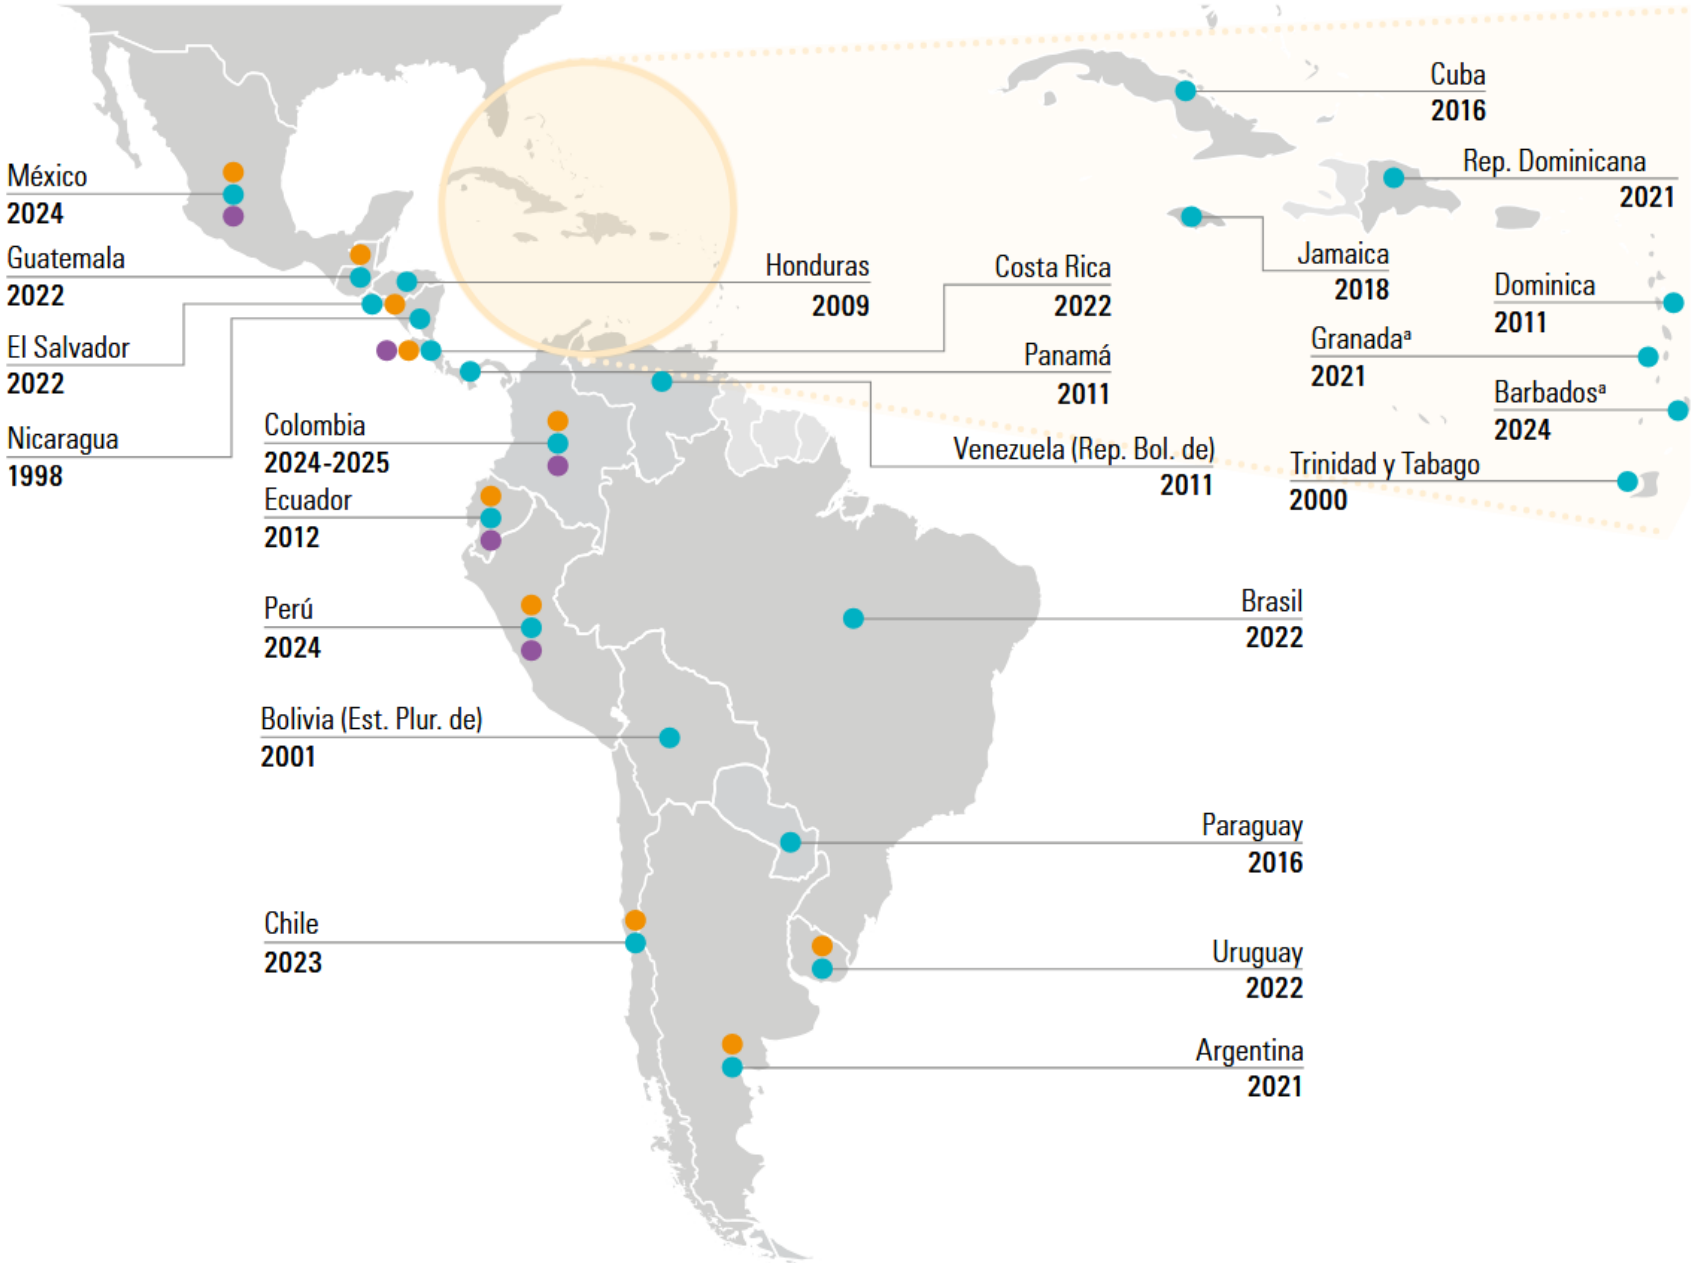
Lucía Scuro Somma
Senior Social Affairs Officer
Division for Gender Affairs, ECLAC
October 1st, 2025

Latin America and the Caribbean: advances in time-use measurements and unpaid work, 1998-2025



24

countries with time-use measurements

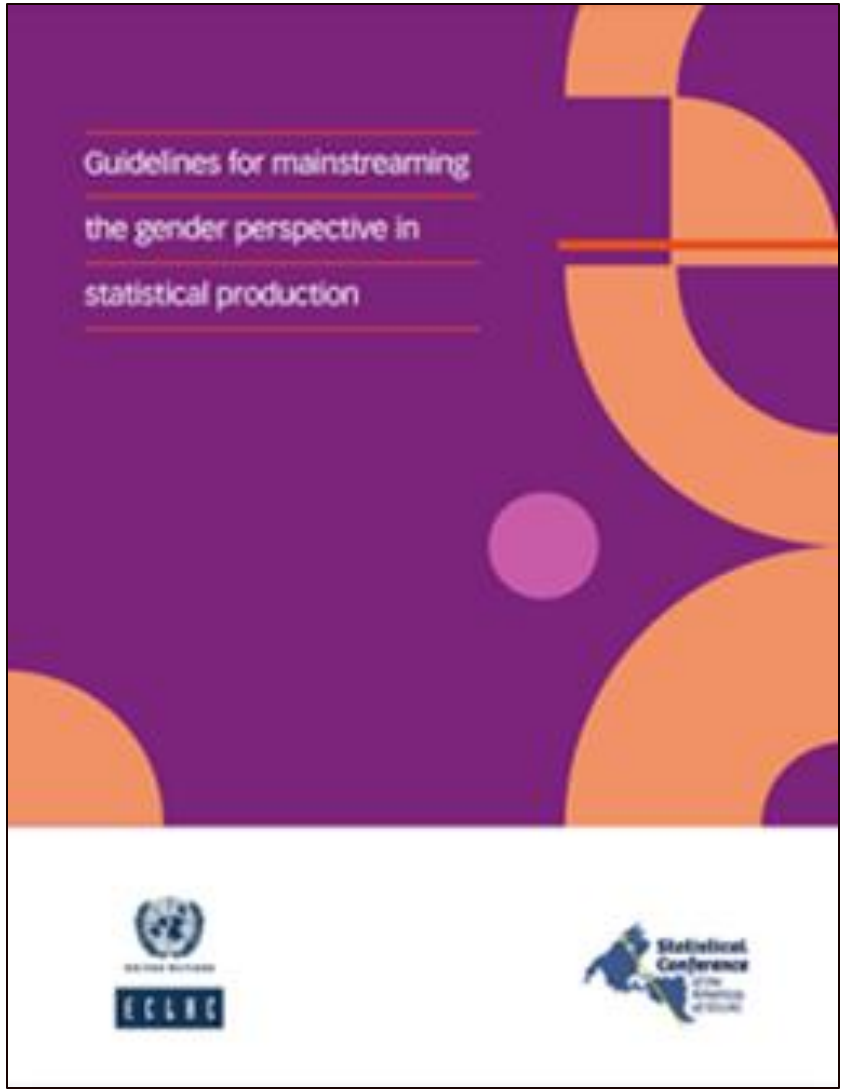
10

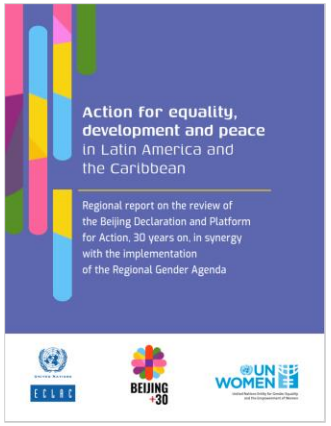
countries with economic valuation of unpaid domestic and care work of households

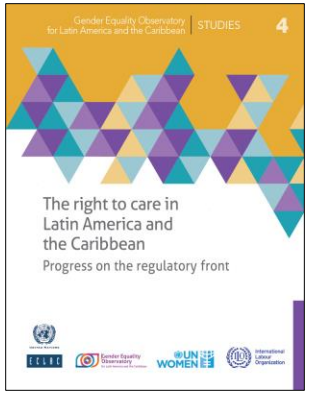
5

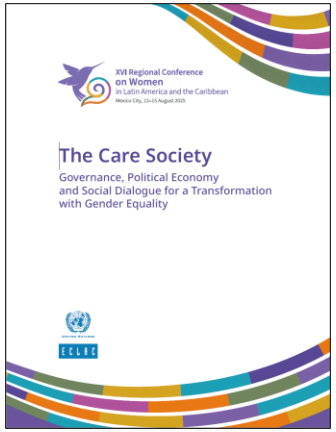
countries have a satellite account of unpaid domestic and care work of households

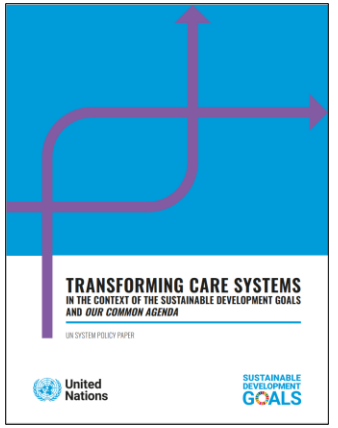
Source: Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC).
a Grenada and Barbados had conducted a pilot data collection on time use, which has not been officially published.

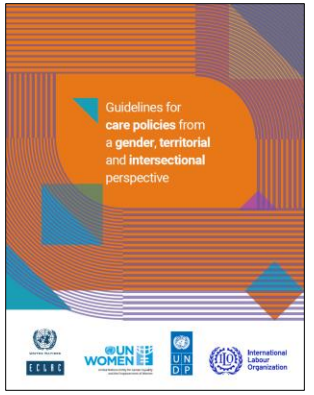












ECLAC Gender Affairs Division
https://www.cepal.org/en/work-areas/gender-affairs

Thank you!