Comments:

- Estimated census coverage are not available at this point. The Census Bureau use both method (Post Enumeration Survey (PES) and Demographic analysis) to measure the coverage.
- The Decennial Census doesn't collect labor force characteristics since 2000 (long form). Characteristics regarding economic topics like labor force, industry, occupation, etc... are only available for Puerto Rico through a Community Survey since 2005 and later years. Once the Community Survey release their 2020 or 2021 data we can use as source for this topics, at this point the available data refers to the 2019 year or 2015-2019 years.
