| In order that the description of national population series orin the Statistical Division of the United Nations maybe as up  |  |          |                              |          |           |
|--|--|----------|------------------------------|----------|-----------|
| in the Statistical Division of the United Nations maybe as up  |  |          |                              |          |           |
|  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| as possible, it is desirable to provide for confirmation or revis  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| of the method of their construction. The questions below rela  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| coverage of data and method of estimation. It is requested the   |  |          |                              |          |           |
| made in the field following the words which best describe the  | estimates  |          |                              |          |           |
| in terms of these questions.   |  |          |                              |          |           |
| 4 COVERAGE OF C.T.   | ı  | 1        |                              | 1        |           |
| 1. COVERAGE OF DATA  | L  | -        |                              |          |    |
| In conformity with definition given on the instructions, estimate  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| relate to DE FACTO population. In order to clarify the exact of  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| please indicate in the following check box the exact disposition   | on of each   |          |                              |          |           |
| group listed, using "IN" for included; "EX" for excluded. Spec   | ify years  |          |                              |          |           |
| to which description refers.   |  |          |                              |          |           |
|  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| POPULATION GROUP   |  |          | ESTIMATED TOTAL FOR:         |          |           |
|  |  |          |                              | 2000     |           |
|  |  |          |                              |          | •         |
| (a) Nomads   |  |          |                              |          | 1         |
| (b) Persons living in remote areas   |  |          |                              |          |           |
| (c) Military,naval and diplomatic personnel and  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| their families located outside the country   |  |          |                              | IN       |           |
| (d) Merchant seamen and fishermen resident in the  | İ  |          |                              | i        | 1         |
| country but at sea at the time of the census   |  |          |                              |          |           |
| (including those who have no place of residence  |     | 1        |                              |          | 1         |
| other than their quarters aboard ship)   |     |          |                              | IN       | 1         |
| (e) Civilian residents temporarily in another  |     |          |                              | IIN      | 1         |
| country as seasonal workers  |     |          |                              | IN       | 1         |
|  |     |          |                              | IIN      | 1         |
| (f) Civilian residents who cross a frontier daily to work in another country   |     |          |                              | IN       | 1         |
|  |  |          |                              | IN       | ł         |
| (g) Civilian residents other than those in (c)   |     |   |                       |          | l         |
| (e), and (f) working in another country  |  |          |                              | EX       | Į.        |
| (h) Civilian residents other than those in (c)-(g)   | !   | -        |                              |          |           |
| temporarily absent the country   |  |          |                              | EX       | l         |
| (i) Foreign military,naval and diplomatic person-  |     |          |                              |          | 1         |
| nel and their families located in the country  |  |          |                              | EX       |           |
| (j) Civilian aliens temporarily in the country   | ļ  |          |                              |          |           |
| as seasonal workers  |  |          |                              | EX       |           |
| (k) Civilian aliens who cross a frontier daily to  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| work in another country  |  |          |                              | IN       | ]         |
| (I) Civilian aliens other than those in (i), (j)   |  |          |                              |          | ]         |
| and (k) working in another country   |  |          |                              | IN       | ]         |
| (m) Civilian aliens other than those in (i)-(l),   |  |          |                              |          | ]         |
| temporarily in country   |  |          |                              | EX       | Ī         |
| (n) Transients on ships in harbour at the time   |  |          |                              |          | 1         |
| of the census  |  |          |                              |          | 1         |
|  | •  | •        |                              | •        | •         |
|  |  |          |                              |          |           |
| 2. METHOD OF ESTIMATION  |  |          |                              |          |           |
|  | •  |          |                              |          |           |
|  |  |          |                              | l        | l         |
| 2A. TOTAL POPULATION   |  |          |                              |   |           |
| 2A. TOTAL POPULATION  Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may   | be   |          |                              |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may   |  |          |                              |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl  | neck   |          |                              |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popular  | neck   |          | indicating the "hase data"   |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average  | neckation  |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the col  | neckationmponents  |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the co of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each De   | neck ation mponents mographic  |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the col  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord fithe code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cor of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each De Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coing of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coin of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popule estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Der Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel  BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coin of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          | % underer |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cor of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Der Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):  i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          | % underer |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coin of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated iii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popule estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Deriverbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date):  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coin of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated iii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popule estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Deriverbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date):  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Derivarbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Derivarbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Derivarbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date):   | neckationmponentsmographic   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Derivarbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date):   | mponents mographic ow:   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popule estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each De Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)   | mponents mographic ow:   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coing of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):  i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):  4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)   | mponents mographic ow:   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cor of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Del Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):  i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):  4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun  | mponents mographic ow:   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cor of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Del Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):  i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):  4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method) estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  | mponents mographic ow:   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coi of the code described in the 1968 issue) and reported bel Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method)  estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  | mponents mographic ow:   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated iii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method) estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register  | neck station mponents mographic ow:  |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "2" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coil of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Del Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register 2. Complete census taken (date): 1. population adjusted to take account of 3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method) estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register 2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase   | neck station mponents mographic ow:  |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coi of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each De Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method) estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register 2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase migration:  | mponents mponents mographic ow:  ting  https://doi.org/10.1001 |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coing of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Der Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):  i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):  4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method)  estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register 2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase migration: i. registered vital statistics   | neck station mponents mographic ow:  |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cor of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Del Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date):  i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date):  4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date):  (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method)  estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register  2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase migration:  i. registered vital statistics ii. vital statistics adjusted for incompleteness  | meck station mponents mographic ow:  ting  ting  X   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a climark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Der Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel Mass DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method) astimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register 2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase migration: i. registered vital statistics ii. vital statistics adjusted for incompleteness 3. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increases in increase and incompleteness) | meck station mponents mographic ow:  ting  ting  X   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a cl mark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the coing of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Dei Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bell BASE DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method)  estimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register 2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase migration: i. registered vital statistics ii. vital statistics adjusted for incompleteness 3. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase no account taken of migration:                                   | meck station mponents mographic ow:  ting  ting  X   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |
| Estimates of total population for a country as a whole may constructed by a variety of means. Please indicate by a climark "X" the method used in constructing the latest popula estimate for (date): average and the "method of adjustment" in accordance with the cord of the code described in the "Technical Notes" of each Der Yearbook (pages 9-10 of the 1968 issue) and reported bel Mass DATA  1. Continuous population register  2. Complete census taken (date): i. population actually enumerated ii. population actually enumerated ii. population adjusted to take account of  3. Sample survey taken (date): 4. Partial census taken or partial registration (date): (please describe)  5. Non-censal count of (date): (describe method)  6. Conjectural estimate derived by means other than coun (describe method) astimates derived from local registers and other sources.  METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  1. Base data secured annually by population register 2. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increase migration: i. registered vital statistics ii. vital statistics adjusted for incompleteness 3. Applying statistics of births and deaths (natural increases in increase and incompleteness) | meck station mponents mographic ow:  ting  ting  X   |          | , indicating the "base data" |          |           |

| <ol> <li>Extrapolating mathematically from censuses taken (date</li> </ol>   | s):            |          |              |          |  |
|--|----------------|----------|--------------|----------|--|
|   |                |          |              | -        |  |
| Please give formula:   |                |          |              |          |  |
| g  |                | †        |              |          | t   |
| F A . 1  |                |          |              |          | 1  |
| <ol><li>Applying an assumed rate of increase, not derived by ma</li></ol>  | itnematical    | 1        |              |          |   |
| extrapolation or interpolation but based on:   |                |   |              |          |  |
| i. assumption with respect to mortality, fertility and   |                |          |              |          | oxdot  |
| migration  |                |          |              |          |  |
| ii. assumption with respect to mortality, fertility but  |                |          |              |          |  |
| no account taken of migration  |                | 1        |              |          |                                       |
|  |                |          |              |          |                                       |
| iii. other assumed rate  |                | 1        |              |          |   |
| If (i), (ii) or (iii) is checked, please give rate used and  |                |          |              |          |  |
| describe how obtained:   |                |          |              |          | L  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
| No time adjustment (base figure held constant)   |                |          |              |          |  |
| 7. Other (explain):  |                | 1        |              |          |     |
| 7. Otrici (explair).   |                |          |              |          | 1  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
| 2B. POPULATION BY AGE AND SEX  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
| Estimates of population  | and to be      | 1        |              |          | 1  |
| Estimates of population according to age and sex are assur   |                |          |              |          | 1  |
| constructed on the same base data as are the total estimates   |                | 1        |              |          |   |
| certain additional factors may be involved in the case of those  | age            |          |       |          | Щ_   |
| distributions estimated from the census enumerations or from   | sample         |   |              |          | 1  |
| surveys. Please indicate below the adjustment(s) made in the   |                |          |              |          |  |
| age distribution used to construct estimates shown in Table P  |                |          |              |          |  |
| 5 to conclude countains shown in Table F   |                | 1        | 1            |   |  |
| AD ILICTMENTS IN DACE  |                | 1        |              |          | 1  |
| ADJUSTMENTS IN BASE  |                | 1        |              |          | L  |
| _  |                |          |              |          |  |
| i. None - based on population actually enumerated at vari  | ous ages       |          |              |          |  |
| or estimated from survey results   |                |          |              |          |  |
| ii. Enumerated population or population estimated from su  | vey            |          |              |          |  |
| results adjusted to take account of underenumeration at  |                |          |              |          |  |
| various ages   |                | 1        |              |          |     |
|  | ·              |          |              |          |                                       |
| iii. Base age distribution "smoothed", i.e., adjusted to remo  | re             |          |              |          | 1  |
| effects of digit preference in age reporting   |                | 1        |              |          |     |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
| METHOD OF TIME ADJUSTMENT  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          | •            |          |  |
| Distribution of estimated population according to age and s  | ex mav         |          |              |          |  |
|  |                | 1        |              |          |                                       |
| also be made by same methods as used to obtain the project   | on or the      | -        |   |          |                                       |
| total figure, or it may be derived by distributing the estimate  |                | 1        |              |          | ļ  |
| according to the percentage of population in each age-sex gro  |                |          |              |          |  |
| time of the census.Please indicate below the method used in  | constructing   |          |       |          |  |
| the age-sex distribution of the latest estimate shown in Table   | PE-2.          |          |              |          |  |
|  |                | •        |              |          |  |
| Applying actual or assumed natural increase  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  | X              | 1        |              |          |                                       |
| and migration  | ^              |          |              |          | -  |
| Applying actual or assumed natural increase alone  |                | 1        |              |          |  |
| Distributing the total estimate according to percentage of   |                |          |              |          |  |
| population in each age-sex group at time of census of  |                |          |              |          |  |
| sample survey  |                |          |              | -        |  |
| By other means (describe below)  |                |          |              |          |  |
| , ()   |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                | 1        |              |          |  |
| L  |                | 1        | L     |          |  |
| DIODOGITION OF LUMBER AND  |                | T        |              |          |  |
| DISPOSITION OF UNKNOWN AGE   |                | 1        |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
| If frequency in unknown age category of table PE-2 and 4   | is zero        |          |              |          |  |
| please indicate below whether in the preparation of the estimate   | ites:          |          |              |          |  |
| • • •  |                |          |              |          |  |
| 1. An age has been assigned to persons for whom age did  | not appear     |          |              |          |  |
| in the census or sample survey   |                | 1        |              |          |  |
| Frequency in unknown age category has been distribute  | 1              | 1        |              |          |  |
|  | u .            |          |              |          |  |
| proportionately among known ages   |                | 1        |              |          |  |
| <ol><li>The frequency of unknown age appearing the census or</li></ol>   | survey         |          |              |          |  |
| was zero   |                |          |              |          |  |
|     |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
|  |                |          |              |          |  |
| 2C. URBAN AND RURAL POPULATION, AND THE POPULA   | TION OF CITIES |          |              |          | 1  |
| 20. S. SALANIA MINE HOLDER OF OLAHON, AND THE POPULA   | OH OF OFFICE   |          |              |          | 1  |
|  |                | 1        | I            |          | 7  |
| Post-censal estimates of the urban and rural population, or  |                | 1        |              |          | 4  |
| population of individual cities can be made in various ways. Ir  |                |          |              |          | 1  |
| countries continuous population registers permit the up-dating   | of local       |          |       |          | ]  |
| population estimates according to the registered balances of   |                |          |              |          | ]  |
| deaths, and changes of residence. In some countries, perhap  |                |          |              |          | 1  |
| surveys permit the up-dating of urban or city population estim   |                |          |              |          | 1  |
|  |                | 1        |              |          | 1  |
| some countries, in relation to post-censal estimates of the total  |                |          |              |          | 4  |
| population, estimates of urban, or city population may be det  |                |          |              |          | 4  |
| by an extrapolation of the percentage or urban in total, or city   |                |          |              |          | 1  |
| urban, population. In some countries, urban and city population  | n may be       |          |              |          | 1  |
| determined on the basis of rates of growth of urban or city po   | oulation       |          |              |          | ]  |
|  |                |          |              |          | 1  |
| observed over a past period, by assuming such rates of drow  | h to           |          |              |          |  |
| observed over a past period, by assuming such rates of growcontinue. Other methods are also possible. Please indicate by |                |          |              |          | -  |
| continue. Other methods are also possible. Please indicate be method used in making post-censal estimates of urban and ru    | elow the       |          |              |          |  |

| city population.   |            |            |
|--|------------|------------|
|  | Urban      | City       |
|  | population | population |
| 1. Population registers  |            |            |
| 2. Surveys, other than a census  |            |            |
| 3. Extrapolation of percentage   |            |            |
| 4. Observed rate of growth, assumed                                      |            |            |
| to continue  |            |            |
| 5. By other means (describe)   |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY OF DEMOGRAPHIC STATISTICS                                   |            |            |
|  |            |            |
| In order to bring up to date the bibliographical information you kindly  |            |            |
| supplied with last year's questionnaire, please list below publication   |            |            |
| which have become available since that time or are to be issued in the   |            |            |
| near future which contain results of your latest population census or    |            |            |
| survey, and current statistics on population estimates, vital statistics |            |            |
| and internation migration.   |            |            |
| This information is being requested for the purpose of compiling and     |            |            |
| maintaining a current bibliography of demographic statistics. The        |            |            |
| citations should, therefore, be in a form suitable for reference         |            |            |
| purposes, i.e., the TITLE, ISSUING AGENCY or AUTHOR, PLACE, DATE OF      |            |            |
| PUBLICATION and NUMBER OF PAGES should be give.                          |            |            |
| Example:   |            |            |
| Demographic Yearbook, 1967. United Nations, New York, 1968, 778 pp.      |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |
|  |            |            |