

Table 19

Table 19 presents population in collective living quarters by type, sex and urban/rural residence for the latest available year between 1995 and 2010.

Definitions

Collective living quarters include structurally separate and independent places of abode intended for habitation by large groups of individuals or several households and occupied. Such quarters usually have certain common facilities, such as cooking and toilet installations, baths, lounge rooms or dormitories, which are shared by the occupants. They may be further classified into hotels, rooming houses and other lodging houses, institutions and camps.

Institutions cover any set of premises in a permanent structure or structures designed to house (usually large) groups of persons who are bound by either a common public objective or a common personal interest. Such sets of living quarters usually have certain common facilities shared by the occupants (baths, lounges, dormitories and so forth). Hospitals, military barracks, boarding schools, convents, prisons and so forth fall within this category
