What is the Census?
The Census is a count every ten years of all people and households in the country. Census information is used by central and local government, health authorities and many other organisations to allocate resources and plan services for everyone. The Northern Ireland Statistics and Research Agency conducts the Census in Northern Ireland.

Completing your form
Completion of the Census form is compulsory under the Census Act (Northern Ireland) 1969. If you refuse to complete it, or give false information, you may be liable to a fine. This liability does not apply to completion of the questions on religion. The requirement for you to return a completed form will not be satisfied until such a form has been received. If you need help please contact the Census Helpline.

Confidentiality
The information you provide is protected by law and treated in strict confidence. The information is only used for statistical purposes, and anyone using or disclosing Census information improperly will be liable to prosecution. Census forms will be held securely under the terms of the Public Records Act (Northern Ireland) 1923.
