About the Census

The Census takes place every five years and counts all the people and households in the country. This Census will give a comprehensive picture of the social and living conditions of our people at the start of the twenty-first century.

The Census provides vital information necessary for planning Ireland’s future.

Confidentiality is guaranteed

The confidentiality of your Census return is legally guaranteed by the Statistics Act, 1993. Information provided will be used for statistical purposes only.

Census Enumerator

Your Census Enumerator will assist you if you have difficulty completing your Census form or if you have any questions about the Census.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Who should complete the Census form?

The householder or any adult member of the household present on the night of Sunday 28 April 2002 should complete the form.

Each household should complete a separate Household Form.

A household is:

- one person living alone or
- a group of related/unrelated people living at the same address with common housekeeping arrangements, that is, sharing at least one meal a day or sharing a living room or sitting room.

If you have any queries

Contact your Census Enumerator if:

- there is more than one household at your address (each will need their own Household Form); or
- there are more than 6 persons in the household (you will need a Continuation Form).

How to complete your Census form

1. The form should be completed on the night of Sunday 28 April.
2. Please answer questions about the household on page 2.
3. Identify on page 2:
   - all persons (including visitors) who spent the night of Sunday 28 April in the household;
   - all household members who are normally resident in the household but who are temporarily away on the night of Sunday 28 April.
4. Answer the questions beginning on page 4 for all persons present on the night of Sunday 28 April.
5. Answer the questions on pages 22-23 in respect of any household members temporarily away on the night of Sunday 28 April.
6. Sign the declaration on the back page.

Have your completed form ready for collection

The Enumerator will call to collect your completed Census form on Monday 29 April or soon afterwards and will assist you if you have any difficulties. If for any reason the form has not been collected by Monday 27 May 2002, please return it to our FREEPOST address which is Central Statistics Office, PO Box 2002, FREEPOST, Swords, Co. Dublin.
