

18 February 2005

Workshop on Environment Statistics (Dakar, 28 February to 4 March 2005)

Provisional Agenda

Monday, 28 February

Opening session

Session 1: The need for environmental statistics and indicators

Session 2: Environmental statistics and indicators: concepts and methods

Session 3: International/regional data sources for environmental indicators

Session 4: Working group session on the selection and use of indicators

Tuesday, 1 March

Session 5: Statistics on water: resources and use

Session 6: Statistics on water: treatment and quality

Session 7: Working group session on data availability and collection for the

UNSD/UNEP Questionnaire on Environment Statistics: water section

Wednesday, 2 March

Session 8: Statistics on air emissions and air quality

Session 9: Statistics on waste

Session 10: The use of surveys and/or censuses as data collection instruments for environment statistics

Thursday, 3 March

Session 11: Statistics on land use

Session 12: Statistics on land degradation

Session 13: Application of GIS and remote sensing to environment statistics – case study of the LADA project in Senegal

Session 14: Working group session on data availability and collection for the

UNSD/UNEP Questionnaire on Environment Statistics: land section

Friday, 4 March

Session 15: Institutionalization of environment statistics

Session 16: Dissemination of environment statistics

Session 17: Towards a regional programme of environment statistics

Closing session: presentation and adoption of conclusions and recommendations