Women in the Informal Economy

Joann Vanek
Women in Informal Employment: Globalizing and Organizing (WIEGO)

Abstract

The presentation describes the importance of statistics on informal employment in the measurement of women’s economic roles, the progress being made in the development of these statistics and WIEGO’s role in improving these data. A particular focus of WIEGO's work is statistics on women at the base of the economic pyramid.