

Twenty-ninth session
Bangkok, 24-29 April 2016

Item 12 of the provisional agenda

Activities relating to the Working Group on Country Names

Names of Countries as Presented on Web Sites of UN Specialized Agencies

Submitted by USA*

*Prepared by Trent Palmer, U.S. Board on Geographic Names

This information paper presents the findings of a review of country names lists on the web sites of the 15 United Nations specialized agencies (UNSA)¹ as well as the list of UN Member States at un.org. Please consult the two tables that follow for the results of the review. Two tables were necessary to present all 15 UNSA.

Explanation of Column A

- Column A lists the UN Official English Short Name as found in the ‘Title’ section of each country entry in the UNGEGN List of Country Names. This is the basis for the sort order of the table.
- Country names in boldface are those found in the “Title” section as noted above which are different from the names found in the corresponding field for the UN Official Short Name in English.
- Country names that are not in boldface are those in which the name in the ‘Title’ section matches the corresponding UN Official Short Name in English.

Notes

- Only UN Member States are listed.
- Blank cells indicate that the country name as found on the web site of the UNSA matches the UNGEGN list of Country Names.
- The text ‘n/a’ indicates that the country is not a member of the relevant UNSA.
- A note about the sort order is added parenthetically when the entry’s sort position does not correspond with the first letter of the country name as presented.

Observations

- Some UNSA sites use formal names or abbreviations on occasion.
- In some cases the National Official country name is used by an UNSA instead of the UN Official English name (e.g., São Tomé and Príncipe (IMF)).
- Identical conventions (i.e., parentheses) are used in the United Nations Multilingual Terminology Database (UNTERM) to serve two different purposes. Example: ‘Congo (the)’. In this entry the presence of ‘(the)’ indicates that the definite article should be included in sentence usage. Proper cartographic usage is ‘Congo’. List usage typically conforms to cartographic usage (according to the survey results presented in the table). However, with the entry ‘Micronesia (Federated States of)’ the purpose of the parentheses is simplification and indexing. ‘Federated States of Micronesia’ is the one and only official name for this country.
- UNTERM has chosen to impose a standardized treatment of the English definite article that removes distinctions found in the National Official short name of two countries (The Bahamas and The Gambia). Some of the UNSA lists use the National Official form.

¹ Listing found at: <http://www.un.org/en/sections/about-un/funds-programmes-specialized-agencies-and-others/index.html>; accessed 8 March 2016)

- The name change from ‘Cape Verde’ to ‘Cabo Verde’ has not been made by three UNSAs.
- Membership levels in United Nations specialized agencies vary; some Member States belong to almost every UNSA; some belong to very few.
