NATIONAL STANDARDIZATION

Political and administrative units in the Republic of Cuba and the official designation of its provinces and capitals and its municipalities and their capitals

Document submitted by Cuba

Summary

The document gives a list setting forth the official name of the country and its capital, as they appeared in the Constitution of the Republic of 1976 and the official names of each of the new provinces and their capitals and of the new municipalities and their capitals, as they appear in Act No. 1304 of 3 June 1976, on Political and Administrative Units.

Further information is provided on the relative standing of the municipal capitals, as determined by the official documents for the year 1981 of the State Statistical Committee, in the knowledge that such information is useful to geographers, cartographers and anyone interested in information on geographical names.
