Context

Africa Programme on gender statistics

Gender Statistics at ECA are implemented within the framework of the African Programme on Gender Statistics (APGS)

Purpose of APGS: The main objective of the APGS is to:

- Increase the availability of quality, timely and comparable gender statistics at the national, regional and international levels in Africa

- Bring all efforts aiming to improve gender statistics in Africa under one umbrella programme (As these Efforts in Africa were disjointed, project based, ad-hoc & did not bring about sustainable improvement

- Make best use of scarce resources, as Many agencies and stakeholders undertaking same or similar activities
Africa Programme on gender statistics

- Phase 1 (2012 -2016): adopted by the Statistical Commission (StatCom) for Africa held in January 2012

  The StatCom has requested the Africa Group on Gender Statistics (AGGES) to:
  - Coordinate its implementation
  - Report on the progress of implementation of APGS in each of its sessions
  - ECA is the Secretariat for both the AGGES and the APGS

- Phase 2 (2017 -2021): aligned to SDGs data and methodological issues requirement
APGS Strategy

A set of strategies are identified for achieving the objective of APGS. These include:

1. Regional partnership and coordination

2. Capacity building and research

3. Reporting and dissemination of GS at the country and regional levels

4. Advocacy
