

Government and non-market producers: cost of capital of own assets

The AEG reaffirmed the principle to include a return to capital on non-financial assets used in non-market production.

It was agreed to follow-up on a one-on-one basis the comments from the global and country consultations, including those comments on the scope, and report back to the next AEG Meeting in early 2006.