Subject Comments on Volume 2 of the 2008 SNA

Thank you for your email.

Statistics New Zealand would like to congratulate all those involved with the global review of SNA on reaching this milestone. The process has worked well and we feel we have been well informed on progress and have received plenty of opportunities to input into the review. Consequently, Statistics New Zealand has no further comments to add on Volume 2 of the 2008 SNA.

Regards.
