

Sasana Kijang

Sasana Kijang was established by Bank Negara Malaysia in 2011. The state-of-the-art building represents the Bank's continuous drive for development through effective learning initiatives, as well as creating an appropriate environment to promote innovation and best practices in central banking.

About Malaysia

Malaysia offers an eclectic mix of cultures, wonders and attractions. Home to centuries of rich cultural history spanning multiple nationalities and religions, the country is a melting pot of various races. Malaysia is truly a country that epitomises Asia.

Enjoying direct air links from almost every major city from all corners of the globe, Kuala Lumpur is a grand gateway to Malaysia's fascinating destinations. Just as the ancient Malay empire of the past, Kuala Lumpur's commercial centre is a grand meeting place for merchants and travellers from all over the world.

About 62nd ISI WSC 2019

Malaysia will host the prestigious 62nd ISI World Statistics Congress 2019 (ISI WSC 2019) on 18-23 August 2019 in Kuala Lumpur. The congress is being organised by the International Statistical Institute (ISI) in collaboration with the Department of Statistics, Malaysia (DOSM), Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) and Malaysia Institute of Statistics (ISM). The main congress will be held in Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, while the pre-congress events will be organised at the Sasana Kijang.

The congress is the flagship event of the ISI. The 62nd ISI WSC 2019 will bring together about 2,500 statisticians and practitioners from all fields, whether industry, academia and government, or, students, researchers and policymakers, from more than 130 countries, to share insights on the development in statistics and statistical science, and their applications to support analysis, research, surveillance and decision making.
