United Nations Statistical Commission Fifty-second session 1–3 and 5 March 2021 Item 3 (a) of the provisional agenda Items for discussion and decision: data and indicators for the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Document E/CN.3/2021/2 - Report of the Inter-Agency and Expert Group on Sustainable Development Goal Indicators

Dr. Mohd Uzir Mahidin, Chief Statistician, Department of Statistics, Malaysia (DOSM) Statement: a) Malaysia as a member of Inter-Agency and Expert Group on Sustainable Development Goal Indicators (IAEG-SDG) which represents South-Eastern Asia has contributed to the work conducted by the IAEG-SDG. Malaysia also has volunteered to be a member of IAEG-SDG Metadata Sub-group and IAEG-SDGs Working Group on Geospatial Information (WGGI). b) Malaysia acknowledged the background document on COVID-19 and the global indicators for the Sustainable Development Goals, the practical guide on data disaggregation for the Goals and the compilation of tools/guidance regarding existing materials for data disaggregation. Malaysia has provided feedback and comments regarding the above matters to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. c) Malaysia agreed to adopt all the annual refinements. Malaysia also has given feedback for SDG 10.7.3, SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. d) Malaysia agreed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021. e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NG Statement: a) Malaysia as a member of Inter-Agency and Expert Group on Sustainable Development Goal Indicators (IAEG-SDG) which represents South-Eastern Asia has contributed to the work conducted by the IAEG-SDG. Malaysia also has volunteered to be a member of IAEG-SDG Metadata Sub-group and IAEG-SDGs Working Group on Geospatial Information (WGGI). b) Malaysia acknowledged the background document on COVID-19 and the global indicators for the Sustainable Development Goals, the practical guide on data disaggregation for the Goals and the compilation of tools/guidance regarding existing materials for data disaggregation. Malaysia has provided feedback and comments regarding the above matters to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. c) Malaysia agreed to adopt all the annual refinements. Malaysia also has given feedback for SDG 10.7.3, SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. d) Malaysia agreed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021. e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators sa well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia will be conducting Multiple Indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia and the capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collector. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes.
 a) Malaysia as a member of Inter-Agency and Expert Group on Sustainable Development Goal Indicators (IAEG-SDG) which represents South-Eastern Asia has contributed to the work conducted by the IAEG-SDG. Malaysia also has volunteered to be a member of IAEG-SDG Metadata Sub-group and IAEG-SDGs Working Group on Geospatial Information (WGGI). b) Malaysia acknowledged the background document on COVID-19 and the global indicators for the Sustainable Development Goals, the practical guide on data disaggregation for the Goals and the compilation of tools/guidance regarding existing materials for data disaggregation. Malaysia has provided feedback and comments regarding the above matters to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. c) Malaysia agreed to adopt all the annual refinements. Malaysia also has given feedback for SDG 10.7.3, SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. d) Malaysia agreed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021. e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia and sed on the availability of indicators assessment, the crucial areas that Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes.
 Indicators (IAEG-SDG) which represents South-Eastern Asia has contributed to the work conducted by the IAEG-SDG. Malaysia also has volunteered to be a member of IAEG-SDG Metadata Sub-group and IAEG-SDGs Working Group on Geospatial Information (WGGI). b) Malaysia acknowledged the background document on COVID-19 and the global indicators for the Sustainable Development Goals, the practical guide on data disaggregation for the Goals and the compilation of tools/guidance regarding existing materials for data disaggregation. Malaysia has provided feedback and comments regarding the above matters to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. c) Malaysia agreed to adopt all the annual refinements. Malaysia also has given feedback for SDG 10.7.3, SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. d) Malaysia agreed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021. e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia will be conducting Multiple Indicators Cluster Survey (MICS) to accommodate the unavailable SDG indicators as an initiative to reduce the data gaps towards achieving 2030 Agenda. Based on the availability of indicators sussessment, the crucial areas that Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes. <td colspan="2">Statement:</td>	Statement:
 the Sustainable Development Goals, the practical guide on data disaggregation for the Goals and the compilation of tools/guidance regarding existing materials for data disaggregation. Malaysia has provided feedback and comments regarding the above matters to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. c) Malaysia agreed to adopt all the annual refinements. Malaysia also has given feedback for SDG 10.7.3, SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. d) Malaysia agreed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021. e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes. 	Indicators (conducted b	AEG-SDG) which represents South-Eastern Asia has contributed to the work y the IAEG-SDG. Malaysia also has volunteered to be a member of IAEG-SDG
 SDG 10.7.3, SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular IAEG-SDG meetings. d) Malaysia agreed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021. e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia will be conducting Multiple Indicators Cluster Survey (MICS) to accommodate the unavailable SDG indicators as an initiative to reduce the data gaps towards achieving 2030 Agenda. Based on the availability of indicators assessment, the crucial areas that Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes. 	the Sustaina and the cor Malaysia ha	ble Development Goals, the practical guide on data disaggregation for the Goals applation of tools/guidance regarding existing materials for data disaggregation. s provided feedback and comments regarding the above matters to the IAEG-SDG
 e) Malaysia has published Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Indicators Malaysia, 2019 report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia will be conducting Multiple Indicators Cluster Survey (MICS) to accommodate the unavailable SDG indicators as an initiative to reduce the data gaps towards achieving 2030 Agenda. Based on the availability of indicators assessment, the crucial areas that Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes. 	SDG 10.7.3	SDG 12.c.1 and SDG 14.1.1 to the IAEG-SDG Secretariat prior to the regular report in December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. There are 128 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized indicators. Malaysia will be conducting Multiple Indicators Cluster Survey (MICS) to accommodate the unavailable SDG indicators as an initiative to reduce the data gaps towards achieving 2030 Agenda. Based on the availability of indicators assessment, the crucial areas that Malaysia needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and climate action as well as public safety related goals. Malaysia has undertaken engagement and collaboration with agencies in terms of data collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes.	d) Malaysia ag	reed to adopt the proposed programme of work of the Expert Group for 2021.
collection. Currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also has built up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society Organisation (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for SDG localization purposes.	report in There are indicators. accommoda achieving 20 that Malays	December 2020 which is the second publication for SDG indicators. 28 available indicators, an increase of 37 indicators as well as 18 localized Malaysia will be conducting Multiple Indicators Cluster Survey (MICS) to e the unavailable SDG indicators as an initiative to reduce the data gaps towards 030 Agenda. Based on the availability of indicators assessment, the crucial areas a needs for capacity building are environment particularly waste management and
Submitted on: 2/17/2021	collection. C has built Organisation	currently 72% of data are from agencies while 28% are from DOSM. DOSM also up engagement with Non-Government Organisation (NGO), Civil Society (CSO), URBANIC and Iskandar Regional Development Authority (IRDA) for
	Submitted on:	2/17/2021