Statement:

- Egypt appreciates the effort exerted by the Bureau regarding the working methods of the Statistical Committee and the comprehensive review to revise the functions and review other initiatives of the Bureau, the most important of which are:
  1. Incorporating the gender statistics perspective into committee's all activities.
  2. Review of Multi-Year Programs (The Bureau initiated a review of the multi-year work program of 53rd session. The purpose of this review was to consider whether the multi-year program was sufficient to cover the work of the Statistical Commission).
  3. Review of the social pillar (initiating the establishment friends of the president group to review the field of social and demographic statistics, like the friends of the president group for economic statistics.
- We agree on the list that will be addressed to revise the terms of reference to meet the needs of the data ecosystem, as well as Egypt's joining the team for drafting the terms of reference of the Statistical Committee.
