Statement provided by: General Authority for Statistics -Kingdom of Saudi Arabia
Statement: Registers' department at the General Authority for Statistics (GASTAT) in Saudi Arabia welcomes the recommendations of the United Nations regarding building the civil registry and United Nations Population Fund on statistical population registers reflecting the work carried out during the last year and the developments that are underway.  The department has been working in collaborations with governmental entities to develop three statistical registers that will have a positive impact on the modernization of its work, providing data that meets the needs of GASTAT departments, that their products meet the needs of national and international stakeholders and sharing comparable statistics that can be accessed and used easily by many stakeholders nationally and internationally to support policy/decision-making and public-private partnership as well.
