

United Nations Statistical Commission

Fifty-third session

Item 3 (j) of the provisional agenda

Items for discussion and decision: crime and criminal justice statistics

Document E/CN.3/2022/14 Report of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and the National Institute of Statistics and Geography of Mexico on crime and criminal justice statistics

Statement provided by:

Central Agency for Public Mobilization and Statistics (CAPMAS)

Arab Republic of Egypt

Statement:

- Egypt agrees with the content of report and the items presented for approval by the Statistical Committee.
- CAPMAS provide its thanks and appreciation to the concerned team for the effort made in preparing the report and the previous progress achieved.
- We would like to point out that the CAPMAS conducted the Economic Cost of Gender-Based Violence Survey “ECGBVS” 2015, as it aims to measure the prevalence rates of violence against women of all kinds and forms, which measures the fifth goal of the SDGs.
- CAPMAS also supports researchers concerned with crime issues, and the last research on women’s crimes was in 2020.

Submitted on:

2/24/2022