

United Nations Statistical Commission

Fifty-third session

Item 3 (l) of the provisional agenda

Items for discussion and decision: environmental-economic accounting

Document E/CN.3/2022/16 – Report of the Committee of Experts on Environmental-Economic Accounting

Statement provided by: BPS - Statistics Indonesia
Statement:
(a) Indonesia proposed programme of work of the Committee of Experts on Environmental-Economic Accounting for the period 2022–2025 be align with current or future initiative from other international agency, such as Development Accounts related to G20 New Data Gap Initiative (DGI) on Climate Change, experimenting or piloting Global Biodiversity Framework, post-covid build back better: greening the economy, etc.; (b) Indonesia is involved in the engagement of the Committee in the SNA update, as well as the International Standard Industry Classification and Central Product Classification updates through working group that propose environmental products and/or activities related be identified more clearly in the CPC/ISIC revision; (c) Regarding the engagement of national statistical offices in the post-2020 global biodiversity framework and the development of the monitoring framework in the lead-up to the fifteenth meeting of the Conference of the Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity, currently the Ministry of Planning (Bappenas) is leading this and BPS-Statistics Indonesia will coordinate with them; (d) Regarding the Global implementation strategy for the System of Environmental Economic Accounting Ecosystem Accounting framework, BPS-Statistics Indonesia currently conducted research on Ocean Accounts with inter-ministerial collaboration (Ministry of Marine and Fishery Affairs, Geospatial Agency, Ministry of Finance) and we will review and suggest changes to the GOAP guideline on Ocean Accounting for Sustainable Development. BPS-Statistics Indonesia will also conducted the compilation of Maritime GDP using the GOAP and UN manuals on Ocean Economy, and accordingly if there should be any changes to the methodology we will write suggestions of changes to current international manuals. (e) We have no comment on Final draft of the guidelines for biophysical modeling, which is aimed at supporting the compilation of ecosystem accounting in countries; (f) We welcome the progress made in finalizing the statistical framework for measuring the sustainability of tourism.
Submitted on:	2/17/2022