Statement provided by:
Viet Nam (General Statistics Office of Vietnam)

Statement:
GSO Vietnam agrees and highly appreciates the work of the Expert Committee on Business and Trade Statistics implemented in 2021 and Strategic view on business and trade statistics.

GSO Vietnam proposed that the Expert Committee on Business and Trade Statistics should research, survey and evaluate the situation and capacity of countries in the regions as well as the global to develop The manual on the global core set of principal business and trade indicators and The manual on the maturity model for statistical business registers highly feasible, suitable to the statistical level of the countries and the regions; share the best practices of countries in the region and the global.

Guidelines for developing a roadmap to fulfill the UNSD's commitment to provide information on trade and business statistics.

Submitted on: 2/17/2022