17	Last Part Para. F (VI. Action to be taken by the Statistical Commission		I.R. Iran suggests that the necessity of studying climate change and its impacts on agriculture (one of the SDGs goals) be emphasized by the Commission. Moreover, I.R.Iran suggests that the member states share their experiences and best practices in using the cutting-edge technology and innovative methods for preserving the agriculture of those countries that have faced the drought and been impacted by severe climate change.
