

Afsane Yazdani, delegate Iran

Item3 (f). National Accounts

- Member states are facing technical challenges in implementation of SNA 2008 and related issues. We request that, in addition to basic and intermediate training courses, specialized trainings which address more detailed implementation issues being offered by providers. We also request a mechanism through which member states can have a better access to technical assistance from national or international experts.