

Item 3 (k) "Governance, peace and security statistics"

Cuban delegation opinion on document 3k) Cabo Verde report on Statistics about governance, peace and security

The topic under discussion constitutes a new and a sensitive issue for the statistical field, in this sense it will require a depth debate among countries for consensus. Cuba expresses its interest in keep a systematic contact with the work of the Praia Group which advances and results should have a broad consultation among member states.