Questions Slide

Using alternative data sources and data integration for statistical purposes

Alternative data sources	Data culture	Transformation of alternative data	Contractual agreements and partnerships	Data integration organization texplored the use of administrative or big data sources, and with what success?	To what extent is the practice of applying data (including alternative data sources) in evidence-based policy making common in your country?	What are some of the successful methods your organization has employed to transform alternative data so that it could be used for statistical purposes?	Do you have any recent examples of good approaches that your organization has employed to get agreements in place for accessing and using alternative data sources?	Has data integration (including alternative data) raised privacy concerns in your country?