

Compendium on International Trade and Global Business Statistics

1. Policy Demand and Data Gaps

- i. Trade in Services
- ii. Interdependence of economies
  - a) Operations of multi-national enterprises
  - b) Fragmentation of production process
  - c) Global Value Chain analysis
- iii. Trade and Employment
- iv. Country of origin and Trade in value-added

2. Statistical Production Process

- i. Business Registers
  - a) Business Registers and Administrative Data Sources
  - b) Business Registers and Sample Frames for Trade
- ii. Monitoring large enterprises
- iii. Sample Surveys for Trade
- iv. Multi-national enterprises and foreign affiliates
- v. Integrated micro-level data and IT solutions
- vi. Institutional Arrangements

3. Data Dissemination

- i. Trade by Enterprise characteristics
- ii. Trade and Policy issues
  - a) Trade and Employment
  - b) Trade and Innovation
  - c) Trade and Investment
  - d) Trade and Environment
- iii. Goods for processing and Merchanting
- iv. Business Cycle Analytics
- v. Micro-level data access and confidentiality

4. Global Trade Analysis

- i. The international layer: reconciling differences in mirror statistics
- ii. Global Value Chain research
- iii. Trade in Value-added
- iv. International sourcing of business functions