

DATE	TYPE OF MEDIA	COUNTRY	MEDIA	TITLE	SUMMARY	LINK NOTE
2024/11/16	Online	Colombia	Juan Paz	This is how the World Data Forum ended	With commitments and exchanges of experiences in the use of statistical information, the World Data Forum ended in Medellín The fifth version of the World Data Forum, held for the first time in a Latin American city, and which brought together nearly 3,000 data experts, leaders, entrepreneurs, young people, academics, government representatives and civil society from more than 130 countries, ended successfully in Medellín.	LINK
2024/11/15	Online	Colombia	Revista C-Level	Women and men: an analysis of gender gaps in Colombia 2024	Within the framework of the 5th United Nations World Data Forum, UN Women and DANE, with the support of the Vice Ministry of Women and the Embassy of Sweden, presented the third edition of the study Women and Men: Gender Gaps in Colombia.	LINK
2024/11/15	Online	Colombia	Economía para la Pipol	What are the benefits of creating so much data? Interview with Stefan Schweinfest	What is data for? How can we trust it? At the 5th United Nations World Data Forum in Medellín, we spoke with Stefan Schweinfest, director of the UN Statistics Division, about measurement, biases, and how to ensure data reflects everyone's realities.	LINK
15/11/2024	Cable	Colombia	Telemedellín	Data plan for migrant population care	News Within the framework of the fifth world data forum, entities presented what would be the data action plan on migration and refuge in Antioquia	LINK

15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	TeleMedellín (Online)	Data Action Plan, the new strategy for the care of the migrant population	Within the framework of the V World Data Forum, entities presented what would be the Action Plan for Data on Migration and Refuge in Antioquia, a resource that seeks to articulate the work of public and private entities to serve this population.	LINK
15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	360 Radio (Online)	Citizen Perception Survey in Colombia: People in Medellín live happily, in Bogotá not so much	The results of the 2023 Comparative Citizen Perception Survey, a joint effort by the Cómo Vamos Cities Network and the Fundación Corona, were revealed. During the World Data Forum 2024, held in Medellín this week, the results of an important Citizen Perception Survey in Colombia were revealed.	LINK
15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	MSN Colombia (Online)	Manizales and Pereira, the Colombian cities with the highest levels of satisfaction, according to a survey	The Colombian cities where residents report a higher quality of life are Manizales, Pereira and those located in the Bogotá savannah, according to the 2023 Comparative Citizen Perception Survey, led by the Cómo Vamos Cities Network and the Fundación Corona.	LINK
15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	C-Level (Online)	Women and men: an analysis of gender gaps in Colombia 2024	The study by UN Women and DANE reveals persistent inequalities between women and men in Colombia, despite slight improvements in some indicators. Within the framework of the Fifth United Nations World Data Forum, UN Women and DANE, with the support of the Vice Ministry of Women and the Embassy of Sweden, presented the third edition of the study Women and men: gender gaps in Colombia	LINK

15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	ADN (Online)	Colombia: 3 femicides and 166 sexual assaults against women and girls every day according to the latest report from UN Women and DANE	Within the framework of the fifth World Data Forum, the National Administrative Department of Statistics (DANE), in collaboration with UN Women and the Ministry of Equality, presented the third edition of the report Women and Men: gender gaps in Colombia.	LINK
15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Valora Analitik (Online)	Manizales and Pereira, the Colombian cities with the highest levels of satisfaction, according to a survey	Learn about the results of the quality of life measurement carried out by the Cómo Vamos Cities Network and the Corona Foundation. The Colombian cities where residents report a higher quality of life are Manizales, Pereira and those located in the Bogotá Savannah, according to the 2023 Comparative Citizen Perception Survey, led by the Cómo Vamos Cities Network and the Corona Foundation.	LINK
15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Ifm Noticias (Online)	Gender gaps persist in Colombia: UN Women and DANE present new revealing data	At the 5th United Nations World Data Forum in Medellín, UN Women and the National Administrative Department of Statistics (DANE) presented the third edition of the study “Women and men: gender gaps in Colombia.”	LINK
15/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Noticias Segovia (Online)	ICT Minister spoke from Medellín about the challenges in data matters	The minister assured that one of the country's challenges is to democratize the use of this data. On the second day of the United Nations World Data Forum, held in Plaza Mayor, Medellín, the ICT Minister, Mauricio Lizcano, was present and referred to the data panorama in Colombia and the challenges at the country level.	LINK

15/11/2024	Diario	Colombia	El Colombiano	World Bank launched its data 'Google'	The organization showed in Medellín a prototype of an AI-based search engine that will facilitate access to its databases. This week, the city of Medellín hosted, for the first time in Latin America, the fifth edition of the UN World Data Forum, an event that welcomed international experts at the Plaza Mayor Convention Center to study how data can drive sustainable development in the 21st century.	LINK
15/11/2024	Diario	Colombia	El Tiempo	Report reveals that gender gaps in the country remain accentuated	THIS WAS DEMONSTRATED IN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE FIFTH WORLD DATA FORUM, WHICH ENDS TODAY IN MEDELLÍN. Access to employment opportunities, care work, comprehensive health and mental health were some of the areas whose statistics were highlighted in the presentation of the third edition of the report 'Women and men: gender gaps in Colombia', which ends today in Medellín.
15/11/2024	Diario	Colombia	ADN Medellín	Gender gaps in the country	DANE and the UN presented the third edition of the report 'Women and men: gender gaps in Colombia', which highlights figures on access to employment, domestic work and comprehensive health as the main gaps between genders. Gender gaps prevail in Colombia: UN THIS WAS REVEALED IN THE THIRD REPORT CARRIED OUT BY THE UN AND DANE.
14/11/2024	FM	Colombia	Radio Munera Eastman Medellín	Federico Gutiérrez inaugurates the UN World Data Forum in Medellín	The mayor of Medellín, Federico Gutiérrez Zuluaga, inaugurated the United Nations World Data Forum, marking Medellín as the first Spanish-speaking city in Latin America to host this event. With more than one hundred sessions and parallel activities, the forum will run until November 15 at Plaza Mayor. This fifth edition contributes to the consolidation of the	LINK

					Science, Technology and Innovation District in the city.
14/11/2024	Cable	Colombia	TeleAntioquia	Medellín hosts the fifth United Nations World Data Forum	Medellín is hosting the fifth United Nations World Data Forum.	LINK
14/11/2024	FM	Colombia	Caracol Radio Medellín	World Data Forum	Some details will be presented from UN Women, as well as the gender gaps in Colombia, key data will be revealed for decision-making in public policies in our country, a joint effort by women from DANE, the Swedish Embassy and the Ministry of Equality.	LINK
14/11/2024	Cable	Colombia	TeleAntioquia	Medellín: UN World Data Forum	Stefan Schweinfest, director of the UN Statistics Division, explains why the 5th World Data Forum, which is taking place this week in Medellín, is key for the future, in collaboration with DANE. It is a global forum, with almost 3,000 participants from 120 countries around the world, and will discuss how information is managed for decision-making. There are challenges such as the low data culture, the risk of cybersecurity when personal information is stolen, and the tension between people and the companies that collect and use their data.	LINK

14/11/2024	FM	Colombia	RCN Radio Medellín	Latest edition of the United Nations World Data Forum	It is an international platform organized by the United Nations and seeks to discuss and promote the use of data and statistics in sustainable development decision-making, especially issues focused on improving the quality, availability and use of data for the implementation of the 2030 agenda for sustainable development and the sustainable development goals. The event brings together various actors in the public sector, non-governmental entities, the private sector, Academia and seeks to make data such as information and artificial intelligence available to solve social problems and sustainable development.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Noti Tuluá (Online)	ICT Minister spoke from Medellín about the challenges in data matters	The minister assured that one of the country's challenges is to democratize the use of this data. On the second day of the United Nations World Data Forum, held in Plaza Mayor, Medellín, the ICT Minister, Mauricio Lizcano, was present and referred to the data panorama in Colombia and the challenges at the country level.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	El Tiempo (Online)	UN and DANE present third report on gender gaps in the country: social, economic and labor differences prevail	The report was presented within the framework of the fifth World Data Forum held in Medellín. Access to employment opportunities, care work, comprehensive health and mental health were some of the areas whose statistics were highlighted in the presentation of the third edition of the report "Women and men: gender gaps in Colombia" prepared by DANE in conjunction with the women's division of the United Nations and the Ministry of Equality.	LINK

14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Corrillos (Online)	Colombia became the epicenter of global and multilateral discussions	All these high-level events show how Colombia has been in the eyes of the world in just one month. Now, the fifth version of the United Nations World Data Forum (UNWDF) has been set up in Medellín, which will bring together world leaders, data scientists, policy makers and civil society to discuss the essential role of data in driving sustainable development.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Nación Paisa (Online)	New Migration and Refugee Data Action Plan: a step towards inclusion	At the 4th United Nations World Data Forum, Comfenalco Antioquia and CEPEI will present the Action Plan on Migration and Refugee Data in Antioquia, a strategy to consolidate and systematize key data on the refugee and migrant population in the region.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	ACIS (Online)	“We are working to have more inclusive data that represents the diversity of our population”: Minister Lizcano	The head of the ICT portfolio participated this morning in the second day of the 5th United Nations World Data Forum, which will be held in Medellín until next Friday. From this space, he shared the Government's commitment to make information a driver of development for the country, respecting the privacy and security of data, and achieving its interoperability.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	MSN Colombia (Online)	The report that reveals the challenges of closing gender gaps in Colombia	To see how Colombia is doing in its efforts to close gender gaps, UN Women, the National Administrative Department of Statistics (DANE) and the Ministry of Equality have just published a report on November 14 that shows the gaps that persist between men and women.	LINK

14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Noticias de Colombia (Online)	Medellín is the venue for the fifth United Nations World Data Forum: these are the topics being discussed (www.eltiempo.com)	On November 13th, the Mayor of Medellín launched the fifth edition of the United Nations World Data Forum, a space that will address challenges related to technological innovation, the responsible and ethical use of emerging technologies, data for sustainable development, and alliances to improve the quality and access to information.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Ovidio Hoyos (Online)	With the Government of Change, Colombia became the epicenter of global and multilateral discussions	Yesterday, the fifth edition of the United Nations World Data Forum (UNWDF) was held in Medellín, bringing together world leaders, data scientists, policy makers and civil society to discuss the essential role of data in promoting sustainable development.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Orfe TV (Online)	With the Government of Change, Colombia became the epicenter of global and multilateral discussions	Yesterday, the fifth edition of the United Nations World Data Forum (UNWDF) was held in Medellín, bringing together world leaders, data scientists, policy makers and civil society to discuss the essential role of data in promoting sustainable development.	LINK
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Impacto Tic (Online)	Google Data Commons, the importance of accessible data for all	On the second day of the World Data Forum held in Medellín, Prem Ramaswamy, director of Data Commons, was the protagonist of one of the panels aimed at leveraging Artificial Intelligence and open data. Below are some words from the director.	LINK
14/11/2024	Diario	Colombia	ADN Medellín	UN World Data Forum Kicks Off	Medellín is the venue for the fifth UN World Data Forum, a space to address challenges related to the responsible and ethical use of emerging technologies, data for sustainable development, and the quality and access to information. The UN World Data Forum is coming to Medellín IS THE FIRST

					VENUE IN LATIN AMERICA FOR THIS MEETING.
14/11/2024	Diario	Colombia	Vivir en el Oriente	The World Data Forum is coming	The event will be held at Plaza Mayor and will also have very valuable information on its website, which will allow you to stay up to date on trends and knowledge. Dates: between November 12 and 15. More information: https://foromundialdedatos.dane.gov.co/
14/11/2024	Diario	Colombia	Q'Hubo Medellín	More plans to embrace migration	The Migration and Refugee Data Action Plan. Antioquia now has a Migration and Refugee Data Action Plan, which promotes access to reliable and available official and non-official information about this reality in the region. It was developed by Comfenalco Antioquia and the CEPEI think tank, and will be presented this week during the United Nations World Data Forum.
14/11/2024	Online	Colombia	El Tiempo (Online)	UN and Dane present third report on gender gaps in Colombia: social, economic and labor differences prevail	Presentation of the third edition of the report Women and Men: Gender Gaps in Colombia, produced by DANE in conjunction with the Women's Division of the United Nations and the Ministry of Equality.	LINK
2024/11/14	Online	Colombia	Impacto Tic (Online)	Google Data Commons, the importance of accessible data for all	On the second day of the World Data Forum held in Medellín, Prem Ramaswamy, director of Data Commons, was the protagonist of one of the panels aimed at leveraging Artificial Intelligence and open data. Below are some words from the director.	LINK

2024/11/14	Online	Colombia	Alerta Paisa	ICT Minister spoke from Medellín about the challenges facing Colombia in terms of data	On the second day of the United Nations World Data Forum, held in Plaza Mayor, Medellín, the ICT Minister, Mauricio Lizcano, was present and spoke about the data landscape in Colombia and the challenges at the country level.	LINK
13/11/2024	FM	Colombia	Radio Munera Eastman Medellín	Medellín hosts the UN World Data Forum with participation of DANE and support from Federico Gutiérrez	The United Nations World Data Forum, which brings together experts and leaders in the field of data and statistics, was held in Medellín. The inauguration, chaired by Mayor Federico Gutiérrez, highlighted the importance of this event for the development of policies based on accurate data, especially in the context of Antioquia. The National Administrative Department of Statistics (DANE) also participates in the forum, contributing its experience in data collection and analysis to promote development projects in Colombia and other countries.	LINK
13/11/2024	FM	Colombia	Radio Munera Eastman Medellín	Against corruption and manipulation	Data has become crucial for decision making, understanding and solving complex problems. DANE, National Government, World Data Forum in Medellín.	LINK
13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Vivir en el Poblado (Online)	United Nations World Data Forum held in Medellín	The capital of Antioquia is the first Spanish-speaking and Latin American city to host this event. There will be more than 100 sessions and parallel events that will run until November 15th at Plaza Mayor. Medellín is the venue for the fifth United Nations World Data Forum, a space to address challenges related to technological innovation, the responsible and ethical use of emerging technologies, data for sustainable	LINK development and alliances for improvement.

13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	El Colombiano (Online)	Colombia wants to be a digital world power, but we are illiterate in the use of data, experts warn	In the midst of this panorama, the 5th World Data Forum, organized by the DANE and the UN, is being held in Medellín this week. In addition, the debate on the data law is advancing in Congress, which seeks to make Colombia a power in data processing with a view to artificial intelligence and decision-making.	LINK
13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	H13N (Online)	A reinforced World Data Forum: Police increase security in Medellín for the international event	The event is taking place for the first time in Medellín and will take place from November 12 to 15. Medellín continues to be the epicenter of international events in Colombia. Now the eyes of the world will be focused on the "World Data Forum", a setting where global leaders, professionals and data experts meet for the first time in Latin America to create alliances and strategies for global development.	LINK
13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	El Colombiano (Online)	"Colombia wants to be a digital world power, but we are illiterate in the use of data, experts warn El Colombiano	Colombia wants to be a digital world power, but we are illiterate in the use of data, experts warn. Colombia stands out as one of the best-performing countries in the OECD Digital Government Index 2023, ranking seventh among 38 countries evaluated.	LINK
13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Impacto Tic (Online)	Towards a future with fairer and more inclusive data	For her part, Piedad Urdinola, director of Dane, announced the upcoming launch, on November 15, of an updated document of the Cape Town Global Action Plan, which was presented at the first Data Forum in 2017.	LINK

13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Minuto 30 (Online)	The fifth UN World Data Forum opens in Medellín, a milestone for Latin America	On November 12, the fifth UN World Data Forum was inaugurated, where the ethical use of data and technology for sustainable development is discussed. Courtesy photo. Since this Wednesday, November 13, the city of Medellín became the epicenter of knowledge and technological innovation with the inauguration of the fifth United Nations World Data Forum.	LINK
13/11/2024	Online	Colombia	Impacto Tic (Online)	5th World Data Forum: Connecting global communities to strengthen data-driven sustainable development	The 5th World Data Forum highlights the importance of data for sustainable development. Representatives from over 120 countries met to promote ethical and collaborative use of data, addressing global challenges and fostering progress through technology and innovation.	LINK
13/11/2024	Online	Namibia	GMN	United Nations World Data Forum	The renewed global action plan is a second-generation document of the original Cape Town Global Action Plan for Sustainable Development Data launched at the first Forum in 2017, reflecting the aspirations of the wider stakeholder base fostered by the Forum over the past seven years.	LINK
2024/11/12	Online	Colombia	Prensa Latina	UN World Data Forum held in Medellín, Colombia	The event will also be attended by 500 national and international experts in statistics management, who will join the debates in which leaders from government, the private sector, academia, civil society, the media and philanthropists, among others, will participate.	LINK
2024/11/12	Diario	Colombia	El Espectador	Colombia is the epicenter of the largest discussion on data and statistics in the world	Data is the new gold. That is the conclusion that many analysts have come to when looking at its uses and potential; governments use it to make informed decisions, companies to learn more about their customers, science to mitigate climate change and optimize natural resources, and banking to perform	LINK risk analysis and fraud prevention, just to mention a few examples.

2024/11/12	Online	Colombia	Impacto Tic (Online)	Piedad Urdinola: “Thinking of information as a public good and accessible to all”	Prior to the opening of the World Data Forum held in Medellín, DANE director Piedad Urdinola participated in a press conference announcing the scope and objectives of this event that seeks to bring together more than 3,000 people.	LINK
2024/11/11	Online	Colombia	El Colombiano	“We must take care of the data, it is our compass in a globalized world”: Stefan Schweinfest	Stefan Schweinfest, director of the UN Statistics Division, explains why the 5th World Data Forum, taking place this week in Medellín, is key for the future.	LINK
2024/11/11	Diario	Colombia	El Colombiano	“We must take care of the data, it is our compass in a globalized world”: Stefan Schweinfest	Stefan Schweinfest, director of the UN Statistics Division, explains why the 5th World Data Forum, taking place this week in Medellín, is key for the future.
2024/11/7	Online	Colombia	Impacto Tic (Online)	5th World Data Forum: Medellín, the epicenter of data use for sustainable development	Medellín will become the world centre of statistics with the celebration of the 5th UN World Data Forum. This international event, organised by DANE, will bring together data and statistics experts from more than 160 countries, addressing key issues for inclusion, trust, ethics and sustainable development.	LINK