Information briefing on the United Nations World Data Forum and Road to Bern

United Nation Statistical Commission side event, New York

4 March 2020
Programme Development

Call for proposals ended on 7 February 2020

521 proposals received

14 proposals removed in initial screening

Hosted an online information session in January 2020 to address queries linked to the Call for Proposals!
Key highlights

Quality and quantity of proposals increased

Increase in proposal submissions from Asia and Latin America

More varied session proposals

Data communities putting forward proposals remain diverse
Proposals received by thematic area (TA)

- TA1: New approaches to capacity development for better data (70 proposals)
- TA2: Innovations and synergies across data ecosystems (151 proposals)
- TA3: Leaving no one behind (124 proposals)
- TA4: Understanding the world through data (105 proposals)
- TA5: Building trust in data and statistics (52 proposals)
- TA6: How far have we come? (19 proposals)
Criteria for evaluating proposals

- Relevance and impact
- Diversity
- Data innovation

- Creativity
- Data Communities
- Concrete
Current status of review

- Secretariat reviewed proposal for initial screening
- Proposals currently under review by the Programme Committee
- Submitters will be notified of status by 31 March 2020
- Review by the High-level Group for Partnership, Coordination and Capacity-Building for statistics for the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in May 2020
- Announcement of the Final Programme on 1 June 2020
Registrations open from June 1 to August 1 2020

Follow our website undataforum.org and twitter @UNDATAFORUM for more updates!!
Thank you!