

WORLD STATISTICS DAY CELEBRATION IN ARMENIA

Taking into account the importance of the celebration of the World Statistics Day that will increase an image of our Office and raise a public awareness about our activities and values, the National Statistical Service of Armenia is planning to celebrate the World Statistics Day as follows:

1. has developed the poster dedicated to that event.
2. to publish a press-release describing our achievements and made progress, and development perspectives.
3. to post an information devoted to this day on the NSS Website and open library.
4. to organize a press-conference on that day.
5. to organize a special event on 20-10-2010 in house to celebrate this occasion with the participation of the Prime-Minister of RA.
6. to congratulate our staff and provide staff members with certificates, letters of commendation and appreciation, etc.

Yerevan, 02 January 2010