

World Statistics Day in Belgium

Statistics Belgium plans several activities during the Belgian Presidency of the European Union to mark WSD:

- A joint press conference will be held with Eurostat, the European office that gathers all national statistical institutes.
- A folder that emphasizes the importance of statistics in our daily life will be disseminated as widely as possible.

All this is initiated in close co-operation with the Higher Council of Statistics and the regional statistical offices.

More information on <http://statbel.fgov.be/en/statistics/figures/index.jsp>

Belgium, 17 September 2010