

World Statistics Day in Croatia

To join the celebration of the World Statistics Day, Croatian Bureau of Statistics will issue a publication “Croatia in figures“ in which a series of data on different statistical areas will be presented.

The publication will be available on the CBS website.

The Croatian Bureau of Statistics will organize as well an “Open Day” for students to learn the basics on how to make data meaningful.

In addition, a press release on the previously mentioned activities will be sent to media representatives.
