

World Statistics Day in Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK)

- The Government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea will organize lectures and seminars on statistics in celebration of World Statistics Day.
- The Government also plans to raise awareness on World Statistics Day through using mass media, including by airing a special programme on WSD on TV and radio, and through publishing introductory articles on the Day in major newspapers.

Democratic People's Republic of Korea, 17 September 2010