

World Statistics Day in Fiji

The Fiji Islands Bureau of Statistics will be celebrating World Statistics day with the following activities:

- A march through the City by members of the national statistical system, including statisticians and members of Ministries of Health, Agriculture, Education, Police and Judiciary affairs.
- Public address by the Honorable Prime Minister of Fiji in the City Park. Government representatives, International Organizations, Business Community and NGOs have been invited to the celebration.
- Exhibition with display of publications by all Statistical Units at the Park for general public access.
- Presentation by Fiji Statistical officers on major indicators compiled. Discussion of issues and implications in the production of quality, timely and reliable statistics.
- Celebration at the Fiji islands Bureau of Statistics Office for all staff and retired staff to acknowledge and celebrate the achievements made in the statistics office.

Fiji, 14 October 2010