

World Statistics Day in Kenya

In order to celebrate the many achievements of official statistics achieved in the recent past, Kenya will join this year the celebration of World Statistics Day. In particular, the celebration in Kenya will be focused mainly on "conducting population and housing censuses for informed decision-making".

Kenya, 14 October 2010