

World Statistics Day in Luxembourg

To celebrate World Statistics Day, Statistics Luxembourg has decided to organize an open public event on 20 October 2010 in the heart of Luxembourg City. From 9 in the morning till 7 in the evening STATEC will present its publications at a stand and seek direct contacts with the public. This action will be supported by radio spots, radio interviews related to statistics and drawing the attention to the World Statistics Day. Before 20 October 2010 the local press will be informed by way of communiqué of the importance of Luxembourgish, as well as European statistics.
