

CELEBRATING WORLD STATISTICS DAY IN MALAWI

The Government of Malawi through the National Statistical Office takes pleasure in joining the rest of the world in celebrating World Statistics day on October 20, 2010.

The activities to celebrate the day will be held in Mwanza a District in the Southern part of Malawi. The programme of the activities is as follows:

1. Press Release by the Government (NSO)
2. Displays/ Shows by National Statistical Office and other Organizations which use data from NSO
3. Comedy
4. Band Performance
5. Cultural Troupe Performance
6. Recitals of Poems by School Pupils
7. Traditional Dances by selected local groups
8. A football match
9. Distribution of leaflets
10. Speeches by Officials:
 - Commissioner of Statistics
 - District Commissioner
 - Traditional Authority
 - Member of Parliament of the area
 - Minister for Development Planning and Cooperation